THE WILLAMETTE VALLEY EXPRESS

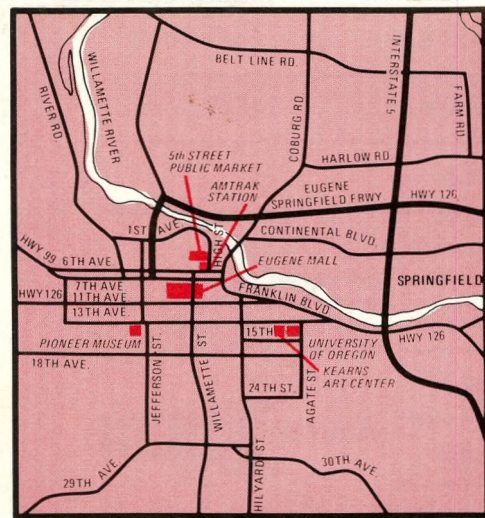

Adventures Along the Route of the Willamette Valley Express

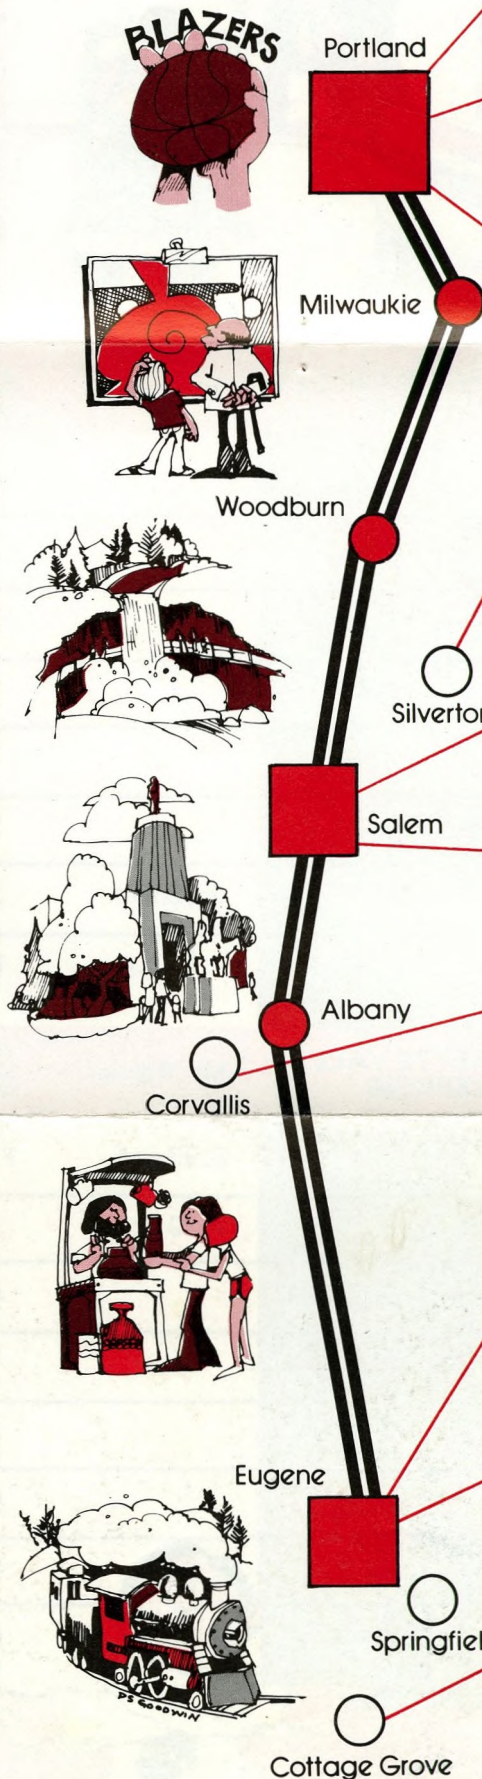

PORTLAND

SALEM

EUGENE

NBA Basketball, NASL Soccer, AAA Baseball

Join the thousands of Portlanders who cheer for the Trail Blazers (basketball), Timbers (soccer), and the Beavers (baseball). Trail Blazer schedules can be obtained through the Memorial Coliseum; Timbers and Beavers schedules through the Portland Civic Stadium.

Walking Tours

Escorted walking tours of "Old Town" will introduce you to Portland's original business center, now bustling with small boutiques, arts and crafts galleries, and quaint eateries.

Oregon Historical Society, Portland Art Museum

The Portland Art Museum offers one of the Northwest's greatest collections of fine art, from Primitive to Classical and Modern. Just across the park, the Oregon Historical Society also offers a fine museum, and can suggest many other attractions to explore in the Portland area.

Silver Falls State Park

From Salem, you can take a bus 29 miles east through Silverton to beautiful Silver Creek Falls State Park, where several spectacular waterfalls are connected by scenic forest trails.

Oregon State Capitol

Here you will find marble sculptures honoring Lewis and Clark, colorful murals depicting Oregon's early years, and educational displays from each of Oregon's counties. If you feel energetic, you might want to climb the 121-step spiral stairway to the top of the Capitol tower.

The Bush House

See many original furnishings in the city's historic preservation of the Bush House, a Victorian gaslight mansion of 1878.

Oregon State University

Sports enthusiasts can watch Pacific Ten Conference competition between Oregon State University and rival teams. The athletic entertainment is virtually year-round here, with OSU competing in football, cross-country, basketball, baseball, track, crew and wrestling.

Fifth Street Market, Downtown Mall

Held every weekend from April until Christmas, Eugene's open-air Fifth Street Market offers a vast selection of handmade and homegrown bargains. Shops and bistros of every description line the city's parklike Downtown Mall, one of the nation's few designed just for the pedestrian.

University of Oregon

Plays, concerts, lectures, symphony and choral presentations are held frequently at the University of Oregon. Popular spectator sports include Pacific Ten football, basketball, gymnastics, swimming, tennis and track.

"The Goose"

Twenty minutes south of Eugene, at a resort near the city of Cottage Grove, you can climb aboard an old-fashioned, steampowered train named "The Goose" and take a 35-mile ride to the foot of the Calapooya Mountains, entry point to the old Bohemia mining country.

Express yourself!

Presenting Amtrak's Willamette Valley Express. A fast, comfortable and convenient way for you to express yourself to Portland, Eugene and points between.
