

ALASKA

CANADIAN NATIONAL (PACIFIC COAST) STEAMSHIPS

PROGRAMME OF MUSIC

Coriolan Overture, Part Two	Beethoven
N.B.C. Symphony Orchestra
Gaite Parisienne, Part Four	Offenbach
London Philharmonic Orchestra
Gems From "The Love Song"	Offenbach
Victor Opera Orchestra
Hansel and Gretel, Part Two	Humperdinck
B.B.C. Symphony Orchestra
Solitude	Tschaikowsky
Hollywood Bowl Symphony Orchestra
The Magic Flute Overture, Part Two	Mozart
B.B.C. Symphony Orchestra
Rhapsody In Blue, Part Two	Gershwin
Concert Orchestra
Traviata Prelude To Act Three	Verdi
N.B.C. Symphony Orchestra
Vienna Blood	Strauss
Philadelphia Orchestra
Warsaw Concerto, Part Two	Addinsell
Boston "Pops" Orchestra

DINNER

Fruit Cocktail Maraschino

Iced Celery en Branche

Chilled California Ripe Olives

Consomme Royal

Potage Jackson

Consomme Froid en Tasse

Filets of Alaska Salmon Trout, Normande

Poached Ketchikan Chicken Halibut, Sauce Genoise

Omelette Chasseur

Breaded Veal Cutlets, Sauce Espagnole

Salmis of Duck en Cassolette

Roast Leg of Spring Lamb, Red Currant Jelly

Young Celery a la Paysanne

Mashed Turnips

Steamed New and Duchesse Potatoes

Roast Stuffed Spring Chicken, Sauce Demi-Deuil

To Order—Combination Salad, Selected Dressing

Diplomat Pudding, Vanilla Sauce

Chocolate Eclair

Petit Fours

Bartlett Pears in Syrup

Coupe St. Jacques

Strawberry Ice Cream and Wafer

Ontario Cheddar and Stilton Cheese

Salted Biscuits

Comporte of Fresh Fruit

Walnuts in Shell

Dainty Dates

Cafe Noir

Imperial Mints

ON THE way to the Pacific—over the easiest grades across the mountains—the two lines of the Canadian National Railways, one to Vancouver and the other to Prince Rupert, are scarcely ever out of sight of water. They follow the streams of such impressive rivers as the Bulkley, the Skeena, the Thompson and the Fraser, and none is more impressive to the eye of the traveller than the turbulent Fraser, shown in the above sketch.

CANADIAN  NATIONAL
THE RAILWAY TO EVERYWHERE IN CANADA