On the other side of this menu you will see a picture of the Pickerel River, typical of Northern Ontario. All the great playgrounds of Ontario—Lake of Bays, Muskoka Lakes, Georgian Bay, the Kawartha Lakes, Timagami, Minaki and the Lake of the Woods, Nipissing, Algonquin Park and others—are reached by the trains of the Canadian National. Some of the finest fishing in the province is to be found in the Lake Nipissing district, watered by the French and Pickerel Rivers, intimately known to Champlain and the missionaries of New France. Algonquin Park, with its more than 1,200 lakes and rivers, is famous for camping and fishing.
