Once "The Continental Limited" has brought you to Jasper National Park, which is on the Canadian National main line, you're let loose in 4,200 square miles of playground. There are many ways of getting round to see the mountains. You can motor over fine highways, ride horseback or hike over delightful trails, climb to the top of the peaks or simply sit at your ease and look at them from below. You can have a good mountain holiday without going farther than Jasper Park Lodge's magnificent golf course. The people on the cover of this menu are riding through the Tonquin Valley, alongside Amethyst Lakes and the rugged Ramparts.
