A scenic selection from Canada's great outdoors can be seen on the route of Canadian National's famous trains. Vacationers may see the white-capped swells of the Atlantic Ocean, the fertile lowlands of Quebec and Ontario, the West's wide expanse of bronzed wheatfields and the steep peaks of the Canadian Rockies. The Super Continental, the Ocean Limited and other CNR 'name' trains take you through these lovely regions. Excellent service and comfortable accommodations will add to your travel pleasure.
