

alaska cruise
s.s.prince george

PROGRAMME OF MUSIC

An evening at the Cafe Carlyle — Part One
George Feyer at the Piano

The Melachrino Strings in Concert — Part One
The Melachrino Strings

Our Man in Hollywood — Part One
Henry Mancini and his Orchestra

Great Bands play Great Hits — Part One
Mancini — Hirt — Prado

You'd be so Nice to Come Home to — Part One
Joe Henderson and His Orchestra

The Most Popular Guitar — Part One
Chet Atkins

String Enchantment — Part One
Alfred Newman and his Orchestra

Miss Smith goes to Paris — Part One
Ethel Smith at the Organ

The Fabulous Fifties — Part Three
Roger Williams with Orchestra

Greensleeves
Mantovani and his Orchestra

5. 23

DINNER

Tropical Fruit Cocktail
Iced Utah Celery Curls Stuffed Manzanilla Olives

Potage de Celeri Consomme Clairmont en Tasse

Baked Prince Rupert Chicken Halibut, Shrimp Sauce

Parsley Omelette
Braised Round Steak, Swiss Style
Grilled Lamb Chops, Bouquetiere
Baked Cumberland Ham, Candied Sweet Potato

Roast Stuffed Young Capon, Garfield

Whole Baby Beetroot au Beurre Golden Wax Beans
Mousseline and Steamed New Potatoes

COLD BUFFET

Roast Prime Ribs of Beef Galatine of Chicken
Chilled Princess Salad, Mayonnaise

Steamed Black Currant Pudding, Rum Sauce
Petit Fours Chocolate Eclairs
Bartlett Pears in Syrup
Banana Strawberry Sundae
Chocolate Ripple Ice Cream with Wafer

English Stilton and Ontario Cheddar Cheese
Salted Biscuits

Comport of Fresh Fruit
Diamond Walnut in Shell
Cafe Noir
Imperial Mints

Back: In 1898, thousands panned the Klondike creeks for gold. Today, a few prospectors have it all to themselves.

Front: They relive the gold-rush heydays in some of Alaska's old saloons and dance halls.

