IT is with pleasure and pride that we call attention to the desire and willingness of all our employees to give their utmost in service and special attention and they as well as ourselves would appreciate your criticisms as well as your commendations.

WHEREVER you travel on the Canadian Pacific, you will find the same desire to maintain that excellence of service for which the Company has been noted for over forty years. The seemingly effortless perfection of Canadian Pacific service is simply an infinite capacity for taking pains.

IT will be a great aid to the service and will avoid any possibility of mistakes if passengers will kindly ask for meal order blanks, and upon them will write their orders, because stewards and waiters are not allowed to serve any food without a meal check.

W. A. COOPER, Manager, Sleeping, Dining, Parlor Cars,
 Station Restaurants and News Service, Montreal.

Mediterranean Cruise

THE SAME sailing-date and the same ship have been chosen for the 1928 and the 1929 Mediterranean Cruises of the Canadian Pacific. On February 4, 1928, and again on February 4, 1929, the stately Empress of Scotland will sail away eastward from New York. Days in sunny ports shift not too soon, nor too late, to days at sea. There is always the delightful, ever-changing contrast of life ashore in Mediterranean lands and life afloat on that storied inland sea. Not a minute is wasted, yet there is never the feeling that one is being hurried.

THE SAME expert management which makes the Mediterranean Cruise so enjoyable extends to the other Winter Cruises conducted by the Canadian Pacific. Members of the West Indies Cruises which leave New York on January 26 and February 29, 1928, by the Montroyal, and January 24 and February 27, 1929, by the new Duchess of Bedford, will find the same careful attention to their comfort and pleasure aship and ashore.

THOSE who make the Round The World Cruise on board the Empress of Australia, which leaves New York on December 1, 1928, or the South America-Africa Cruise by the Empress of France on January 22, 1929, will experience it likewise.
