PASSENGERS WILL KINDLY REFRAIN FROM SMOKING IN THIS ROOM.

WHEREVER you travel on the Canadian Pacific, you will find the same desire to maintain that excellence of service for which the Company has been noted for over forty years. The seemingly effortless perfection of Canadian Pacific service is simply an infinite capacity for taking pains.

IT will be a great aid to the service and will avoid any possibility of mistakes if passengers will kindly ask for meal order blanks, and upon them will write their orders, because stewards and waiters are not allowed to serve any food without a meal check.

W. A. COOPER, Manager, Sleeping, Dining, Parlor Cars,
Station Restaurants and News Service, Montreal.

1881 .. Canadian Pacific .. 1931

TELLING the world about Canada is one of the missions that her ships visiting the Occidental and Oriental ports carry along with their bulk and human freight. Plowing the seven seas, officered and manned by men reared in the standards of the Canadian Pacific, these ships become ambassadors of Canada to the uttermost parts of the world. The good taste and spacious comfort of the accommodation, the perfection of service contribute to the well-earned feeling of confidence in the company, shared by all who deal with it. The ports of China and Europe, the ports of the United States and of the Mediterranean are familiar to those ships, which, in turn, are well-known to all the peoples of the world. Canadian enterprise, Canadian efficiency, Canadian hospitality are writ large on their funnels and on the flag that flies from their masthead.

The White Empresses of the Pacific comprise the largest, fastest and finest steamships crossing the Pacific Ocean. The Empress of Japan holds the speed records of the Pacific.

CANADIAN PACIFIC TODAY

The Canadian Pacific Railway runs from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. Its liners sail from Vancouver and Victoria to Japan and China, and from Montreal, Quebec and Saint John to Great Britain and the Continent. It operates winter cruises to the Mediterranean, the West Indies and Round the World, summer cruises to Norway and a winter service to Bermuda. Its chateaux and hotels represent the latest word in comfort and luxury. Its telegraph service employs 225,000 miles of wire. Its express travellers' cheques are current all over the world. Canadian Pacific offices and agents are to be found everywhere.
