HONOLULU

Take the wide Pacific in two leaps instead of one. Visit Honolulu, city of tropic radiance, en route from Canada and United States to Japan, China or the Philippines. Add Hawaii's delights to your Orient voyage—famous Waikiki with its swimming and surf-board riding; luxurious hotels; incredibly perfect golf courses; entrancing vistas of mountains, valleys and sapphire seas; quaint native life and customs; pineapple and sugarcane plantations . . . Then, in the cool, wind-scented hours of early morning, slip away westward across the sunny Pacific waters. Ahead is peerless Fujiyama; toy-like towns; jinricksha rides; the sun across Hong Kong's matchless harbour; the meeting and mingling of Old Spain and New America in Manila's "Intramuros."

The Canadian Pacific Empress of Japan, largest and fastest liner on the Pacific, and her running mate Empress of Canada call regularly at Honolulu, en route from Vancouver and Victoria to Yokohama, Kobe, Nagasaki, Shanghai, Hong Kong and Manila. They speed from Vancouver to Honolulu in five days, Yokohama in thirteen days, Kobe in fourteen days, Shanghai in sixteen days, Hong Kong in nineteen days, Manila in twenty and a half days.

Luxurious appointments, unobtrusive perfection of service by European and Oriental stewards, Royal Naval Reserve officers—these are other features of White Empress steamships.
