BANFF is the headquarters of BANFF NATIONAL PARK

—a magnificent region of peak, glacier, forest, lake and river protected by the Canadian Government, containing 2,585 square miles. The little town lies embowered in spruce trees, lawns and flowers; through it sweeps the Bow River, green and cold from the glaciers—around it, so close that you can walk to them, are Cascade Mountain, Sulphur Mountain, Mount Rundle, Stoney Squaw, Mount Inglismaldie, and a hundred others.

Through Banff's main street throbs a colorful life—visitors from all parts of Canada, every state of the Union, Europe, Asia—Indians in feather headdress, ten-gallon-hatted cowboys, scarlet-coated troopers of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Park Wardens in their smart green uniforms. Trail Riders and pack ponies.

Not only because of its beautiful environment is Banff one of the most popular mountain resorts of this continent! Part of the reason is famous Banff Springs Hotel. This magnificent hostelry, situated on a crest overlooking the junction of the Bow and Spray Rivers, with the snowy Fairholme Range beyond and Sulphur Mountain behind, has become the centre of a tradition of charming hospitality and a background of social life.

Banff Springs Hotel dominates the view like a great baronial Scottish castle. Inside it is the same—its Mount Stephen Hall reminds you of the stage setting for "Macbeth," while its dining rooms cater for the eye just as their Canadian Pacific cuisine ministers to the hearty mountain appetite.

Banff Springs Hotel . . . is a Canadian Pacific hotel—one of the chain of fourteen hotels from Coast to Coast owned and operated by the "World's Greatest Travel System." It is open from June to September.

For further information, reservations, etc., apply to Manager, Banff Springs Hotel, Banff, Alberta, Canada, or to any Canadian Pacific agent.

The Sleeping Car Conductor will be pleased to wire ahead, without charge, to any of the Company's hotels for your hotel reservations.
