Canadian Rockies Feature Attractions • 1941

Calgary Stampede — July 7-12

Calgary Stampede is the greatest event of its kind in the world. Contestants come from all parts of the continent to compete. All the typically "rodeo" events are featured - roping, broncho busting, covered wagon racing, Indian races, etc. Each year, too, there is the Stampede Ball when all Calgary goes carnival. No visitor to the West should miss this spectacle. The Hotel Palliser, owned and operated by the Canadian Pacific, is the ideal headquarters. Rates range from $3.00 per day, European Plan. After the Stampede, enjoy a vacation in the Canadian Rockies. Banff is situated only 82 miles west of Calgary. Lake Louise is also within easy reach, being only two hours west of Banff.

Indian Days at Banff — July 17-20

Indian Days at Banff is one of the most colorful spectacles on the North American continent. Between three and four hundred Stoney Indians come from the Morley Reserve, 40 miles east of Banff, for their tribal sports. The tribe travels on horse back, and the color schemes of their headdress and beaded costumes are fascinating.

> Alpine Club of Canada Camp July 20 to August 3

The annual camp of The Alpine Club of Canada will be held at Glacier, British Columbia, July 20 to August 3, in a very beautiful district of the spectacular Selkirk Mountains. For further particulars write to W. R. Tweedy, Secretary-Treasurer, R. R. 1, Summerland, B.C.

Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies July 25-29

This order holds an official riding and camping trip each summer, starting from a convenient center. The dates of the 1941 ride are July 25-29. The rate is $50 which includes horses, food, service of guides, tent accommodation, gratuities and bus transportation (to Canmore) from Banff to Mount Assiniboine and return to Banff where the final Pow Wow will be held.

Trail riders will go by bus to Canmore and ride over White Man's Pass by way of Spray Lakes and the old Assiniboine Pass to a camp near Mount Assiniboine where there will be a day's layover. Return will be by the Valley of the Rocks and Simpson Pass. For further particulars write to the Secretary-Treasurer, Room 318, Windsor Station, Montreal, or L. S. Crosby, Banff, Alta.

Sky Line Hikers Camp - Aug. 1-4

This camp will be located in 1941 on Prolific Meadow, an Alpine site at the head of Numa Creek, west of the Great Divide, on the Banff-Windermere Highway. Trails radiate from here to Floe Lake and spectacular hanging glaciers. Rate of $20 per person covers tent accommodation, meals, bus transportation from Banff to Numa Creek and return, and conveyance of duffle to and from the camp. Further particulars from Secretary-Treasurer, Room 318, Windsor Station, Montreal, or from Dan McCowan, Western Secretary, Banff, Alta.

Swiss Guides Rates

Swiss Guides are men thoroughly experienced in mountain climbing, gained by years of service in the Swiss Alps and latterly in the Canadian Rockies. They were engaged in Switzerland and placed in the Canadian Rockies some years ago by the Canadian Pacific Railway, to guide patrons desiring to climb in the Rockies and requiring the services of expert climbers. The Swiss village, "Edelweiss," has been established one mile west of Golden, as their permanent residence. During the season the guides' headquarters are at Chateau Lake Louise. Applications and reservations for their services should be made to the Manager of Chateau Lake Louise at least a week or two in advance of time required.

Rate for each guide is $7.00 per day and sustenance, the guide providing ropes and ice axes.

CANADA WELCOMES U.S. CITIZENS ... NO PASSPORTS!

Visitors from the United States are assured of a friendly welcome at the Canadian border and throughout the Dominion. United States citizens do not require passports to cross the Canadian boundary in either direction, but identification papers, such as voters registration cards, birth certificates, or letters from public officials are always helpful in establishing status, and naturalized citizens are advised to carry their naturalization certificates if at all possible. Canadian and other non-citizen residents of the United States are advised to apply in advance through the nearest United States Immigration and Naturalization office for re-entry permits to facilitate their return from visits to Canada.

Any Canadian Pacific agent will, upon request, gladly obtain detailed information in special cases.
