From Sea to Sea

Canadian Pacific, the transcontinental railway that made Confederation a reality, carries you from Atlantic to Pacific. It is your host in many of Canada's greatest cities. Its resort hotels offer luxury in the Canadian Rockies, beside the two great seas, overlooking a mighty river. Woodland lakes reflect mountain lodges and tea houses, holiday havens for lovers of the Dominion's wide outdoors.

Operated under supervision of the Hotel Department of the Canadian Pacific Railway the establishments described in the following pages are a cross section of Canada. Each is a part of the community it serves. Each influences and is influenced by its neighbourhood. To the travelling Canadian or the visitor from other lands Canadian Pacific hotels maintain the friendliness and good manners that have come to be known as "Canadian Pacific Service".

As you travel from sea to sea you are never more than 24 hours from a Canadian Pacific hotel. These hotels are briefly described for you in this little book. Further information is immediately available at your nearest Canadian Pacific office. There you can reserve space and make all your travel arrangements.

On Dufferin Terrace overlooking the St. Lawrence River, a triple chute toboggan slide and open air skating rink erected by the Chateau provide nearby sport and exercise. Other attractions are hockey matches and curling bonspiels.

The Christmas-New Year season at the Chateau Frontenac is famous. The musical procession of the Boar's Head and Baron of Beef is traditional at the old-fashioned Christmas dinner. The carnival gaiety of New Year's Eve, the vintage wines of the Chateau cellars and the rhythms of its orchestras are enjoyed by guests from every part of Canada and the United States.
