Takakkaw Falls

The wild and lovely mountain scenery visible from your windows on the transcontinental mainline of the Canadian Pacific through the Canadian Rockies is only a foretaste of the beauty that lies in wait in the near hinterland. Every pass, every valley, is an avenue of grandeur. Magnificent snow fields, steel-cold glaciers, and glacial streams feed mountain torrents that cascade down sheer rock cliffs from dizzy heights, eventually to form great rivers that hiss and tumble in a headlong journey to the sea.

Takakkaw Falls, high spot of the Yoho Valley, an hour's ride by Government maintained motor road from Field, B.C., faces Yoho Valley Lodge, a favourite holiday spot. Yoho National Park, by which Falls and Lodge are encompassed, is a game reserve where "tame" wild life is unafraid, and where Alpine flowers, finding successive Springs at successive altitudes, delight the hiker.

THE SLEEPING CAR CONDUCTOR WILL WIRE AHEAD, WITHOUT CHARGE, TO ANY CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL FOR YOUR RESERVATIONS.
