SHORT SEA-TRIPS

Information

To Alaska and back, via the world famed Inside Passage, is a two thousand mile eight and one-half days voyage from Vancouver. Palatial C. P. R. Princess Liners leave Vancouver all the year round.

During the summer months, the splendid Princess Kathleen (above) 368 feet long, Princess Louise (below left), and the Princess Norah (below right) serve this popular travel route.

Excellent daily Automobile Ferry services are maintained by fast modern Princess liners between Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle, Vancouver and Nanaimo.

Triple screw Princess Elaine (above), 301 feet, a typical ship on the all-year Nanaimo-Vancouver Service.

Magnificent 5,500-ton sister ships Princess Joan and Princess Elizabeth (above), operating night service between Vancouver and Victoria, leaving at midnight each direction. The last word in night travel.
