The Chateau Frontenac

Québec City, North America's most famous historical landmark, and capital of the French-Canada province of Québec, combines ancient and modern, European and North American, quaintness and efficiency, metropolis and year-round holiday centre.

Key to these combinations is the Chateau Frontenac, the luxurious Canadian Pacific Hotel that dominates the provincial capital architecturally and socially. From the Chateau's baronial halls to the colonial simplicity of centuries-old dwellings is a literal "stone's throw." The metropolitan comfort of the modern Chateau Frontenac highlights a year-round vacationland that appeals to every taste.

Québec has everything for every kind of vacation. For sports enthusiasts the changing seasons offer: skiing, skating, tobogganning, snow-shoeing, hunting, fishing, swimming, golf, tennis, hiking. For tourists there are churches, the Norman architecture of an earlier day, scenic drives, modern stores, quaint shops—all the evidence of an ancient and gracious culture.

All this—just overnight from fifty million people!
