Mecca of Pacific Coast yachtsmen, home port of the Canadian Pacific B.C.C.S. Princess liners, the Inner Harbour of Victoria, British Columbia mirrors in its placid waters the ivy-clad architecture of the westernmost hotel in the Canadian Pacific chain, The Empress.

Only a walk from the piers where fast liners from Vancouver and Seattle tie up, across green lawns from the Provincial Legislature, and near to the shopping district, The Empress is unique — a metropolitan hotel enclosed in its own 10½ acre garden.

Victoria, Canada's most temperate provincial capital, is an out-door city the year around. Golf, riding, driving, sailing, tennis, lovely walks and gardens beckon at all seasons. For swimmers the Crystal Gardens, largest enclosed salt-water pool on the continent, provides all year entertainment.
