TRAIL RIDERS OF THE CANADIAN ROCKIES

Trail Riding—inexpressibly enjoyable as it is—takes on an additional thrill when you are out to qualify for membership in that celebrated organization, the “Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies.” And no wonder! For this is the real aristocracy of traidom, the only aristocracy that the skyhigh trails know, and the privilege of wearing one of the much-coveted little buttons of rank is the highest honour that the mountain country gives.

Three thousand miles of safe trails—and new trails being opened up each year—are yours for the travelling in the vicinity of Banff and Lake Louise. Bands of sure-footed mountain ponies are available at both these famous resorts. Ride where you like, at your own pace, amid the tumbled beauty of the snow-crowned peaks, sun-silvered glaciers, lakes like jewels, meadowed valleys, jade cathedral-dim forests. Return in time for luncheon, or go to one of the Chalet-Bungalow Camps scattered among the mountains. Ride away with an experienced guide on a Circle Trip. Join the “Trail Riders” on their Annual Ride and Pow-Wow. But whatever you do, don't forget your mileage!

Full particulars from the Secretary-Treasurer, Room 318, Windsor Station, Montreal; or from L. S. Crosby, Western Secretary, Banff, Alta.
