

CANADIAN PACIFIC

SHORT SEA-TRIPS

Information

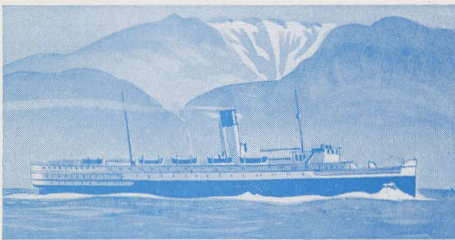

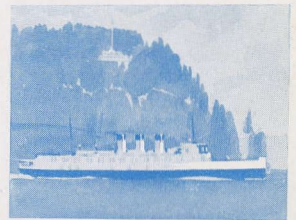

To Alaska and back, via the world famed Inside Passage, is a two thousand mile eight and one-half days voyage from Vancouver. Palatial C. P. R. Princess Liners leave Vancouver all the year round.

During the summer months, the splendid Princess Louise (above) 330 feet long, and the Princess Norah (below left) serve this popular travel route.

Excellent daily Automobile Ferry services are maintained by fast modern Princess liners between Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle, Vancouver and Nanaimo, and during summer months Steveston and Sidney.

Triple screw Princess Elaine (right), 301 feet, a typical ship on the all-year Nanaimo-Vancouver Service.

Sister ship of the Princess Alice, the comfortable Princess Adelaide (above), over 3000 tons and 302 feet long, provides a regular service to Ocean Falls, Prince Rupert and many other places of interest.

Magnificent 5500-ton sister ships Princess Joan and Princess Elizabeth (above) operating night service between Vancouver and Victoria, leaving at midnight each direction. The last word in night travel.
