RIVER BOAT ON THE YUKON RIVER

Gold rush history is yours on the historic Yukon River. During the colorful days of the '98 thousands of gold hungry sourdoughs navigated the mighty Yukon to the glittering creeks of the Klondike.

You can relive the color and excitement of those wonderful days by boarding the steel hulled MV Schwatka at Whitehorse for a spectacular three-hour conducted cruise along the Yukon River... through mighty Miles Canyon, where Jack London served as a river pilot... past the site of old Canyon City... and by the old wooden railroad right-of-way.
