

The California Zephyr winds through California's famed Feather River Canyon for over 100 unforgettable miles. Upstairs in the streamliner's five Vista-Domes passengers can look up, look down, look all around at the magnificent scenery.

