

600-1875

FOR the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition of 1876, Baltimore and Ohio contributed the 600 which then was known as the largest passenger engine in the world. Built by John C. Davis at Mount Clare (Baltimore) it weighed 45 tons. At the Sesqui-Centennial of 1926, it again went under its own steam to Philadelphia.

1827

1927

POST CARD

2-CENT
STAMP

Centenary Pageant

---

---

---