

117 • 1863

THE fine lines of the Mason engine were embodied in the locomotives which Thatcher Perkins designed and built at Mount Clare (Baltimore) during Civil War days. This engine—of which the 117 is a type—developed remarkable efficiency on the stiff grades through the Alleghenies. The 117 has been preserved and is in good running order.

1827

1927

POST CARD

2-CENT
STAMP

Centenary Pageant

---

---

---