ILLINOIS CENTRAL
Main Line of Mid-America

Nothing could be finer than

Eating in a Diner

That seems to be the consensus of opinion of those who travel the Illinois Central, at any rate. We hope you, too, have enjoyed your meal and that we may number you among the many who sing our praises.

There is no question that "dining out" on the train is an important part of travel pleasure. That's why we go to extra pains to provide good wholesome food tastefully prepared by capable chefs and served by courteous waiters. We like to feel that our dining car service is the best you'll find while traveling anywhere. Tell us if you don't agree.
