For sun and fun this winter . . .

We cordially invite you to visit Florida and the southeast this winter and enjoy its glorious winter sunshine, warm surf, tropical fruits, flowers, scenery and unsurpassed recreational facilities. The principal resorts served by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and its connections are briefly described herein. See page 31 for list of passenger offices, staffed with experts ready to serve you in connection with your travel arrangements.

Write Chamber of Commerce of resorts you are interested in for complete information.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA—Capital of Georgia, Financial and Commercial Dynamo of the Southeast. Atlanta is famous for many things, a few of which are its educational institutions, splendid stores, office buildings, beautiful homes, fine hotels, facilities for sports, recreation, sight-seeing and amusements. It is the home of the Cyclorama, one of the two largest paintings in the world, and only 16 miles away is Stone Mountain, one of the natural wonders of the world. Atlanta epitomizes the New South, reveres its antebellum historical heritage and amply rewards visitors whether bent on business or pleasure.

ALBANY, GEORGIA—Modern progressive city. Fine hunting, especially quail, doves and turkeys. World's greatest pecan center, and home of the St. Louis "Cardinals" minor league baseball training camp. Nearby is Radium Springs (largest in Georgia), a noted resort with a fine 18-hole golf course. Good hotels, maximum sunshine, hospitable folk.

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS, FLORIDA—A spring of purest water, hills and lakes. Golf, tennis, bowling.

APOPKA, FLORIDA—Near Orlando. Famous fresh water fishing. A center of the fern industry.

ARCADIA, FLORIDA—Ideally located on the beautiful Peace River in a citrus growing, canning and cattle section. Good hunting, golfing, tourist recreations. A friendly resort appealing to retired folk. A wild life sanctuary at Myakka River State Park nearby.

AUGUSTA, GEORGIA—Second oldest and third largest city in Georgia (1735), where the charm of the old South, the progressive spirit of the New South and a delightful climate, have created a modern, hospitable winter resort. Augusta is an ideal convention city with modern hotels and a Municipal Auditorium, seating 5,000—one of the largest in the southeast. It is famous for golfing, with four superb 18-hole grass green courses, including the famous Augusta National Course and Club (Bobby Jones, President), host of the Masters' Tournament each spring. Tennis, cross country and path riding, hunting, fishing, athletic field and stadium, society circus, dances, barbecues, historic sites, beautiful old homes and gardens—a real "Garden City of the South". Splendid hotels and private inns, notably the Sheraton Bon-Air, Partridge Inn, and closer downtown, the Richmond and Plaza hotels. $50,000,000 multi-purpose navigation, power, flood control, soil conservation and recreation project now being built on the Savannah River by the United States Government.

AVON PARK, FLORIDA—A charming resort in the Scenic Highlands. Fishing, shooting, bathing, boating and golf. Good living accommodations; 25 lovely lakes within city limits, soft pure drinking water.

BABSON PARK, FLORIDA—In the Scenic Highlands, embowered with tropical fruits and greenery, atop the hills, overlooking beautiful Lake Caloosa, 8 miles from world-famous Singing Tower. Hunting, fishing, water sports. Site of Webber College.

BARTOW, FLORIDA—County seat of "Imperial" Polk County is a beautiful city, with fine park and civic center; numerous fresh-water lakes, fishing, golf.

BEAUFORT, SOUTH CAROLINA—On Beaufort River between Charleston, S. C., and Savannah, Ga. (reached from Yemassee, S. C., by C. & W. C. Ry.). The site of the U. S. Marine Training Station on Parris Island. Hunting, good hotels. Ladies Island Country Club Golf Course.

BELLEAIR, FLORIDA—One of Florida's most beautiful winter resorts, overlooking the Gulf of Mexico's blue expanse. Famous for its clear temperate climate, its magnificent Belleview-Biltmore hotel, on its own spacious scenic estate, with a splendid golf course, swimming pool, bathing, fishing, trap and skeet shooting, bridle paths, and many other sports and diversions. Capacity 450 rooms.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA—Atop Red Mountain is the "largest iron man in the world"—Birmingham made statue of Vulcan, mythical god of the forge, and fitting sentinel for the only place on earth where the essential ingredients for making steel—coal, iron and limestone—are present in large quantities. From the balcony of this statue spreads an inspiring panorama of blast furnaces, steel mills and other giant industrial activities which justify the slogan, "The South's greatest industrial city". In addition Birmingham offers cosmopolitan comforts, amusements and recreational facilities and a warm welcome to visitors.

THE BOCA RATON CLUB, BOCA RATON, FLORIDA

—Once the world's most fabulous private club and now, with complete facilities, a palatial resort hotel, the Boca Raton Club lies in tropical splendor conveniently between Palm Beach and Miami. The resort covers 1,000 flowered, landscaped acres and offers everything for winter enjoyment. An outstanding attraction of this fashionable and famous resort is the beautifully-decorated, double-decked Cabana colony, stretching along the club's magnificent ocean-front. Here buffet luncheons are served daily in the Coconut Grove, while an orchestra provides music for dancing. The Boca Raton Club also has two huge, sea-water swimming pools; its own 18-hole championship golf course with Tommy Armour, "master of the iron," as pro; 9-hole pitch and putt courses; six patented tennis courts with an internationally-ranking pro; and a private fleet with Boca's own skippers for fishing the inland waters and the Gulf Stream, which lies only minutes away from the club's own dock. The Boca Raton Club opens each year on or about December 15 and closes May 1st.

BRADENTON, FLORIDA—A beautiful resort located on the Manatee River, within a short drive to the Gulf of Mexico and its fine beaches. Offers recreation in a municipally owned park in the heart of the city. Golf and an exceptionally fine country club. Splendid hotels and apartments. Protected yacht basin near business district. Nearby points of interest are the Ringling Museum, the DeSoto Monument, marking the spot where DeSoto landed; the Gamble Mansion, used by Judah P. Benjamin, Secretary of the Southern Confederacy as a last place of refuge in this country; Braden Castle; South Florida Museum in the Pier Building, one of the finest collections of Florida Indian pottery and artifacts and natural history specimens to be found in the United States. Splendid schools and churches. A good place to visit and establish a home.

BRUNSWICK, GEORGIA—A beautiful seaport city is the station of the "Golden Islands of Georgia", famous for nearly 400 years as the "Golden Isles". On these historic islands, and along the coast are many important shrines—ruins of Spanish missions built as early as 1567, Bloody Marsh, scene of the first decisive battle of the Western World, and famous Colonial plantations. ACL tickets reading between stations north and south of Nahunta, Ga., and Brunswick are honored by Service Bus Lines between Nahunta and Brunswick at no additional cost. Checked baggage handled to and from Brunswick. See also SEA ISLAND.

CASSELBERRY, FLORIDA—An attractive fast growing suburban community, 5 miles north of Winter Park (ACL RR Station) where bus meets trains on advice. An excellent hotel, Azalea Lodge, available for discriminating guests.

CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA—America's most historic city. Charleston "firsts" include: Museum (1773), library (1748), municipal college (1785), Chamber of Commerce (1773).

Old World streets meander along between lovely age-colored walls, relieved at intervals by graceful wrought iron gates of delicate design. Through these gates may be enjoyed fine views of lovely gardens, framing colonial buildings of merit. Charleston Gardens are world famous; "Magnolia," containing azaleas of every known variety (generally in perfect bloom in early April); a rare collection of "Camellia Japonica" (in flower in early March) and many fine specimens of "Magnolia Grandiflora," and Middleton Gardens, farther up the Ashley River, the first and finest example of formal Southern landscape gardening, laid out for Arthur Middleton, signer of the Declaration of Independence, by a famous English gardener, who employed 100 slaves for ten years in the work. Also 27 miles north of Charleston are the beautiful "Cypress Gardens," with hundreds of acres of cypress swamps and lakes, through which dikes and bridges have been built, along which a wide variety of tuberous plants have been set out, which, with azaleas and other flowers, are reflected in cypress studded lakes. A unit of Cape Romain Wild Life Refuge is located on Bull's Island, 16 miles northeast of Charleston. Good hotels and boarding houses, golf, hunting, fishing, boating, ocean beaches, etc.

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA—is rightly named! It is practically surrounded by clear salt water—the Gulf of Mexico on the west and Old Tampa Bay on the eastward side. The city occupies a bluff, the highest coastal elevation in Florida. Clearwater provides excellent living accommodations, fine golf, lawn bowling, tennis, shuffleboard, boating, and exceptional fishing. Clearwater Beach, a beautiful stretch of white sand on the Gulf of Mexico, is dotted with pavilions, playgrounds and every facility for safe, enjoyable surf bathing, and is connected with the mainland by a free beautifully landscaped causeway, from which fishing is enjoyed. Clearwater has lovely streets, trees and flowers, churches, good schools, and library. Gorgeous orange and grapefruit groves are nearby. Clearwater offers every advantage for an enjoyable vacation or a year 'round home.

CLERMONT, FLORIDA—Highest elevated town in Florida, in south Lake County, famous big mouth Bass fishing country. Bathing, bowling, etc.

CLEWISTON, FLORIDA—On Lake Okeechobee. Hunting, fishing. Site of U. S. Sugar Corporation Mill and center of Everglades development. Free guided tours of sugar plant. Excellent accommodations at Clewiston Inn.

The Clewiston Inn, Clewiston, Florida

COCOA, FLORIDA—A progressive small city of unusual beauty bordering the Indian River which is spanned by causeways and bridges providing access to an ocean beach splendid for driving and swimming. Noted for its beautiful scenic drives along the banks of the Indian River and down the exotic Merritt Island. In the heart of the Indian River citrus country. Modern hotels, golf, bathing, unexcelled fresh and salt-water fishing.

CORAL GABLES, FLORIDA—Fast growing "City of Beautiful Homes", adjacent to Miami. Home of the University of Miami, Coral Gables is justly proud of its Mediterranean architecture, thriving business section, excellent private and public schools. The City's southern portions border Biscayne Bay with bathing facilities at two beaches and the fresh water Venetian pool. Sports include golf, miles of bridle paths, tennis and other recreations. Tropical Park race track, operated by the Gables Racing Association, is 3 miles west of the city.

CRESCENT CITY, FLORIDA—Located amidst citrus groves and ancient oak trees on Lake Stella and Crescent. Shuffleboard, tennis, fishing, bathing.

CRYSTAL RIVER, FLORIDA—On the river near Gulf of Mexico. Fine fishing (River or Gulf), hunting (Duck, Dove, Quail, Turkey). Good restful hospitable hotels.

DAVENPORT, FLORIDA—Among hills and lakes in Central Florida's citrus belt—modern citrus packing houses, canning plant and citrus candy factory. An excellent hotel, fine boating and fishing.

DAYTONA BEACH, FLORIDA—A modern all-year resort city with excellent tourist facilities. Site of the "World's Most Famous Beach", ideal for bathing and driving. A million dollar reinforced concrete and stone structure provides an amusement center of unexcelled architectural beauty. An open air amphitheatre of coquina rock seats 4,000 people on the edge of the ocean. Golf, tennis, lawn bowling, shuffleboard and boating facilities provide recreation. Deep sea, inland salt and fresh water fishing. A fishing tournament running from February 1st to November 30th.

DE LAND FLORIDA, "The Athens of Florida"—A beautiful residential city lying in a tropical setting 110 miles south of Jacksonville, on the main line of the Atlantic Coast Line. 4 miles from the St. Johns River, one of the leading large mouth bass streams in America. 23 miles eastward is fine surf bathing. Stetson University provides higher education and lends a cultural atmosphere soon noticed by visitors. Activities in music, art and literature are offered and visitors thus inclined will enjoy De Land. Moss covered oaks line the streets, while extensive orange groves cover the countryside. Hotels, apartments and homes offer accommodations to fit any pocketbook. Hunting, fishing, golf, tennis, bowling, shuffleboard.

DE LEON SPRINGS, FLORIDA—The clear gushing spring is beautiful. Bathing, fishing, hunting.

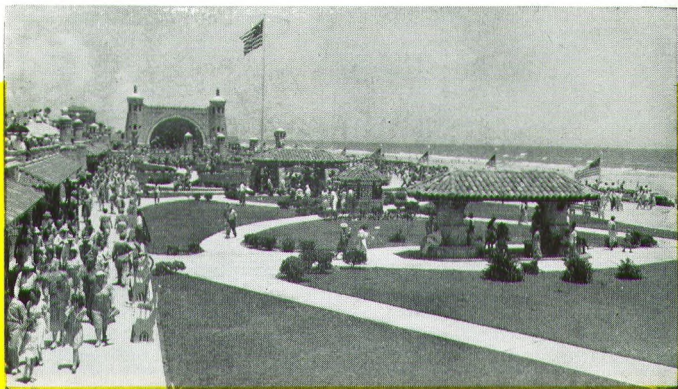

DELRAY BEACH, FLA.—"The Ocean City". An ideal all-year climate. Fine hotels, restaurants, apartments, etc. Recreation for all ages, including polo, bathing, fishing, tennis, golf, bowling, and shuffleboard.

DUNEDIN, FLORIDA—Overlooking St. Joseph Sound and the Gulf. Home of the Professional Golfers Association National Golf Course. Modern hotels: The Fenway, Dunedin Hotel and Yacht Club Inn, all operated under owner-management. Tennis, roque, boating, fishing, hunting, etc. Protected yacht basin. With good schools and churches, and noted for its fine drinking water, there is no better place to visit or make one's home than Dunedin.

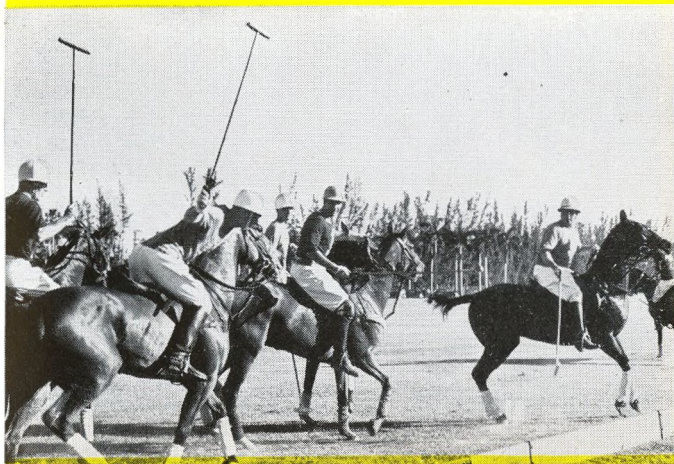

EAU GALLIE, FLORIDA—On the Indian and Banana rivers. Fishing and hunting. A fine land locked yacht harbor. Audubon Egrette rookery.

EUSTIS, FLORIDA—On the shores of Lake Eustis, Lake County, in the heart of the citrus belt. Elevation 125 feet. A gun club where the "Winter Vandalia" (National Trapshoot) is held during March, also weekly skeet shoots. Attractive recreation and boating centers on lake shore, baseball and football fields. Shuffleboard, tennis, horseshoes, fishing, hunting, golf. Florida Sportsmen's Exposition and Lake County Fair in March yearly. A good hotel. Short drive to the east coast beaches and Silver Juniper, Alexander and Sanlando Springs. EVERGLADES, FLORIDA—Lovely tropical village near "Ten Thousand Islands." Marvelous fishing.

FAYETTEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA—Is located on the eastern border of the Carolina "Sand Hills." Trains scheduled at convenient hours. Fort Bragg, great artillery post, and new Veterans' hospital are here. Golf, tennis, and good hotels.

FLORENCE, SOUTH CAROLINA—About midway between New York and Florida. Golf. Myrtle Beach may be reached by motor from Florence.

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA—Marvelous subtropical city directly on the Atlantic Ocean, the Gulf Stream, great equalizer of winter and summer climates, is just off shore. Lying between Palm Beach and Miami Beach, it is one of America's most favored resort areas. It is really an "American Venice." It has 100 miles of navigable waterways, some of which are provided by New and Middle Rivers, and their forks, the others man-made. These are beautifully landscaped. As a consequence, Ft. Lauderdale offers a safe haven for 400 yachts without crowding. A fleet of big game charter fishing boats is available, which with privately owned boats, ply the Gulf Stream waters off-shore. There are gardens, lovely drives, sightseeing boats, and every facility for sports and recreation. There are many hotels and apartment houses, and other accommodations. With all these attractions, Ft. Lauderdale is also the county seat of Broward County, noted as one of the most productive areas in Florida for winter vegetables.

Don't overlook Ft. Lauderdale as a most desirable place to spend a winter, or a life time.

FORT MYERS, FLORIDA—"The City of Palms." Rivals the South Seas for tropical beauty, on the banks of the Caloosahatchee River, which flows into the Gulf of Mexico a few miles to the west, providing one of the world's finest and most extensive game fishing waters and is the Gulf entrance to Cross-state Canal. Tarpon fishing abound in the island passes. Excellent bathing beach. Good hotel accommodations. Golf, tennis, yachting, bathing, boating, hunting and splendid service to fishermen. Winter home and laboratories of the late Thomas A. Edison for 50 years, now open to the public. Home of new Thomas Alva Edison Junior College.

FORT PIERCE, FLORIDA—The Sunrise City, in the heart of the famed Indian River citrus section. Built along the shores of the beautiful river, facing a deep sea inlet. Surrounded by vast citrus groves and winter vegetable fields. Unexcelled sport fishing, yachting and charter boat facilities, lovely scenic drives, ocean beaches, good hotels, golf, tennis, shuffleboard.

GAINESVILLE, "Home of the University of Florida"—In the hills of north Central Florida. An ideal home city with beautiful shaded streets, fine schools, churches, and efficient government. Golf, tennis, fishing, bathing, hunting, football in season.

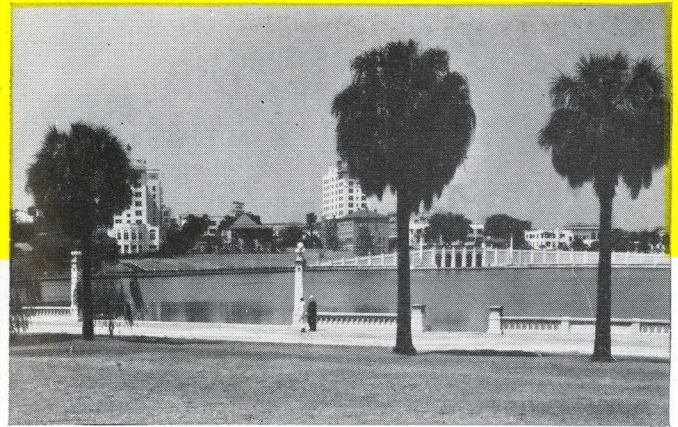

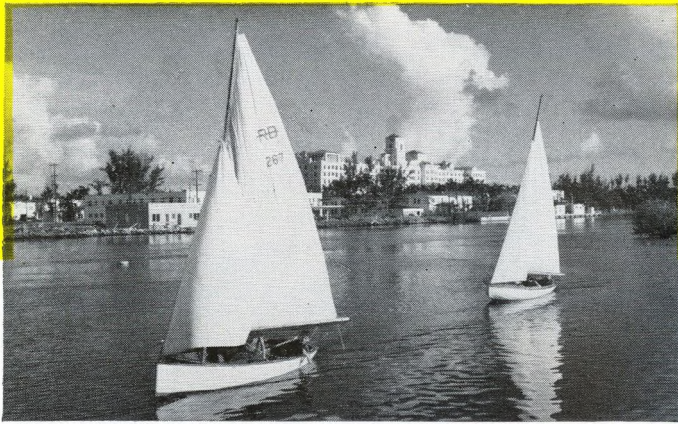

GREEN COVE SPRINGS, FLORIDA—On the high banks of the St. Johns River, in forest of live oaks and magnolia trees. It has a spring, discharging into a bathing pool. Hunting, fishing, boating and golf. Mammoth Naval Storage Basin for warcraft.

Capitol, National Theater and Centro Gallego Club, Havana, Cuba

HAINES CITY, FLORIDA—The gateway to the Ridge section of south Central Florida, where citrus culture is at its best. Groves, packing houses and canning plants in immediate vicinity produce and process more than 12,000,000 boxes of citrus annually. Good accommodations at the modern Hotel Polk, from whose roof garden may be seen the famous Bok Tower. A short distance away are the famous Cypress Gardens, as well as many excellent fishing and hunting spots.

HAVANA, CUBA—Here you will discover an exotic city practically at your front door. Havana has all the charm and gaiety of a New World metropolis combined with the quaint fascination of Old Colonial Spain. You will enjoy seeing the magnificent public buildings, time-worn cathedrals, and the spacious parks filled with a profusion of lovely tropical flowers. World-famed big-game fishing, tennis, swimming, golf, etc., provide a wide variety of active sports. Havana's night life is known the world over for its cosmopolitan atmosphere. Excellent hotels with American standard of comfort, service and cuisine. P. & O. SS Co.'s beautiful "S. S. Florida" provides delightful overnight service between Miami and Havana, 2 sailings weekly in summer, 3 in winter. Restful, romantic, touristic, with tempting meals, dancing and other shipboard activities. A fleet of airplanes provide frequent fast flights between Miami, Havana, West Indies and South America.

HIGHLAND PARK, FLORIDA—Near Lake Wales. A private club, limited membership, with a fine club house, apartments, homes and a splendid golf course.

HOBE SOUND, FLORIDA—15 miles south of Stuart is a colony of beautiful estates extending down Jupiter Island between Hobe Sound and the sea, where occupants enjoy practically private beaches, yachting and fishing off shore. An ideal place for retired people wishing to enjoy all the luxuries of gracious living.

HOLLYWOOD, FLORIDA—Directly on the ocean front, 17 miles north of Miami. An all year resort with fine hotels, apartments and homes. The magnificent Hollywood Beach Hotel facing the sea is a complete resort. Six miles of bathing beach. The Gulf Stream makes ocean bathing delightful all winter. Riverside Military Academy, largest prep school in America, winter quarters here. Daily horse racing booked at nearby "Gulf-stream Park" March 4 to April 19, 1950; dog racing at Hollywood Kennel Club during the 1949-50 season. Anton Brees, famed Carillonneur, will give carillon recitals (45 minute duration) each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 12:00 o'clock noon December 2, 1949, to April 30, 1950, inclusive; also at 3:00 P.M. each Sunday during the same period. Twenty-three lakes within or touching the city limits. Surrounded by citrus groves. Golf, fishing and other sports.

LAKELAND, FLORIDA—"World's Citrus Center". A beautiful city (with 39,000 permanent residents) set amidst lovely evergreen trees, citrus groves and sparkling fresh water lakes in the healthful high "ridge section" of Florida (229 feet above sea level). Crisp sunlit winter days enable visitors to enjoy sail boating, fishing, golf, tennis, lawn bowling and other outdoor sports. Good hotels and other living accommodations. Lakeland is the home of Southern College, an outstanding educational institution, with a registration of more than 2,000; additional dormitories, costing $1,500,000 just completed. Home of Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. It is the center and headquarters of Florida's amazing citrus industry. National Rodeo is held from December 25th through January 2nd and International Motor Boat Races on Lake Hollingsworth in March. Lakeland is an ideal place to make headquarters and visit the many nearby attractions, Cypress Gardens, Tarpon Springs, Bok Tower and the world's largest phosphate mines, etc.

"LAKE REGION," FLORIDA—A lovable, livable section of Florida, between Sanford, Leesburg, Altoona and Clermont. Neighborly small cities and towns such as Apopka, Altoona, Astatula, Clermont, Eustis, Fruitland Park, Groveland, Howey, Lady Lake, Leesburg, Mascotte, Minneola, Montverde, Mount Dora, Mt. Plymouth, Oakland, Sorrento, Tavares, Umatilla, and Winter Garden surrounded by citrus groves, vineyards, ferneries, hills, tropical forests, golf courses, home-decorated hills, and countless fresh water lakes cover the area. The "Lake Region" offers the finest big-mouth black bass fishing in its over 1400 sparkling fresh water lakes—and other game fish are plentiful. There are attractive, well equipped fishing camps. The vast area is one of the most delightful sections of Florida—for visitor, sportsman or home-seeker.

LAKE WORTH, FLORIDA—A friendly city adjacent to the Palm Beaches. Only a 5 minute drive from the business district to the ocean beach and casino—near Palm Beach—with pool and lockers supervised. Fine golf, fishing, tennis, and other recreational facilities. Lake Worth offers the best of living conditions, not only to winter visitors, but to those who wish to make the fine Palm Beach area their Florida home. Churches of all denominations, and excellent public and parochial schools lend to the cultural life of this lovely community.

LEESBURG, FLORIDA—Located between Lakes Griffin and Harris, two of Florida's most famous freshwater piscatorial paradises, and attracts fishermen from all parts of the United States—stages an Annual Freshwater Bass Tournament starting each November 1st and ending March 31st the following spring—Leesburg claims the title of the "Bass Capital of America". One of the outstanding attractions in Leesburg is the Venetian Gardens with its miles of lagoons and excellent bathing beach and boating facilities. It is also surrounded by vast groves and fertile farms. Its watermelon industry is nationally famous. Its tourist trade is growing due to good recreational facilities, living conditions, and cultural advantages—and because Leesburg is the place where the "Big Bass Bite"!

Restaurant and over-night accommodations.

MELBOURNE, FLORIDA—Charming small city in the heart of the Indian River citrus belt on the banks of that beautiful River—halfway between Jacksonville and Miami. Only a few minutes over new million-dollar causeway to Atlantic Ocean bathing beaches. Good hotels and guest homes. Cottages and apartments for winter and summer vacationists. Excellent yacht basin within one block of the business center.

MIAMI, FLA.—An unmatched climate, a marvelous strategic geographical location, unlimited resources and their intelligent use have transformed Miami in 53 years from a tiny, unmapped village to a city with a permanent population of 275,000, plus approximately 2,250,000 annual winter and summer visitors. To care for this throng, Miami has more than 200 beautiful hotels and countless modern apartments flanking more than 800 miles of palm-lined boulevards and avenues. More than one-third of the city's incorporated area is water. Fishing, boating and swimming are naturally major Miami sports.

There are three fine horse racing tracks (Tropical Park, Dec. 1 to Jan. 16; Hialeah, Jan. 17 to March 3, and Gulfstream, March 4 to April 19), four dog tracks, lightning-fast Jai Alai Fronton, golf on 11 courses, horseback riding, also hunting available. Twenty city parks provide archery, badminton, baseball, boxing, horse-shoe pitching, hand ball, lawn bowling, roque, shuffleboard, table tennis and volley ball—even weight lifting. Nationally famous sporting events highlight the yearly calendar. During the fall, some 50 collegiate and high school football games are played in the famous Orange Bowl Stadium. 115 schools, the rapidly expanding University of Miami, Barry College and Miami Military Academy provide educational opportunities. Churches of more than 50 denominations serve religious needs.

The Peninsular and Occidental Steamship Company operates the S.S. Florida between Miami and Havana, Cuba, sailing thrice weekly during the winter and twice weekly during the summer. Pan American Airways and National Air Lines each provide services to the Cuban capital, and the former serves all the principal cities in the West Indies, Central and South America. Both steamer and air services connect with Atlantic Coast Line—Florida East Coast Railway trains.

With its ever growing importance as a Latin American travel and trade center, its stupendous commercial expansion and with more than a million acres of highly prolific soil added to its economy all year, Miami bids fair to crown a remarkable past with a still more marvelous future.

MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA—This unrivalled year-around vacation spot has progressed in less than 35 years from a mangrove swamp to a cosmopolitan city of tropical islands linked by beautiful waterways.

More than a million sunseekers annually visit Miami Beach. They come to this oceanside paradise to enjoy a climate tempered by prevailing southeast trade winds. Temperatures vary only 13 degrees between winter's average of 68.2 and the 81.2 degree summer average.

Bounded on the west by Biscayne Bay and on the east by the Atlantic Ocean, the city has 356 hotels, 1362 apartment buildings and more than 4200 private homes, many of them waterfront showplaces. The permanent population exceeds 40,000 persons.

Fishing is a major attraction in Miami Beach, with such gamefish as sailfish, marlin, tarpon, tuna, barracuda, kingfish, bonita and others of the 650 varieties in the nearby Gulf Stream and surrounding waters.

Miami Beach offers visitors a varied entertainment program, including shopping on famous Lincoln Road, golf, tennis, surf, pool and sunbathing at the many oceanside cabana clubs or on the public beaches, sight-seeing bus, boat and dirigible trips, sailing, boating, waterskiing, badminton, football and baseball.

With 368 restaurants and 23 nightclubs, the city offers a gay nightlife which blends the best in entertainment and food.

MIAMI SPRINGS, FLORIDA—Site of Miami-Battle Creek, founded by Dr. John Harvey Kellogg for persons seeking quiet, rest, recreation and rejuvenation. The Battle Creek system of treatment, diet and health-training are employed by a competent medical staff. Surroundings are beautiful, the sun gyms popular. Open the year-round.

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA—Here the Government of the Confederate States was born and Jefferson Davis was inaugurated as President. The building in which he resided, the houses in which the cabinet officers did their work and the Confederate museum and art gal-

Fifteen miles south is beautiful Brook Green Gardens, admission free.

NAPLES, FLORIDA—A delightful resort below Fort Myers, through which it is reached via Atlantic Coast Line. Has a new fishing pier for fishermen flanked by one of the finest beaches in Florida. Hunting and Golf. Good hotels, including the Naples and Keewaydin Club (for sportsmen) during the season. Naples, on-the-Gulf, being just across the state from Miami and in Florida's sub-tropical zone, is a resort with an assured future.

NASSAU, BAHAMAS—Fashionable resort capital of the Bahama Islands, which have been attracting visitors ever since Columbus first discovered these islands in 1492. Linked to Miami by Pan American Airways and British South American Airways. Equable climate, breath-taking beauty and quaint old world atmosphere have made Nassau a perfect year round resort. Magnificent beaches.

NEW PORT RICHEY and PORT RICHEY, FLORIDA—These delightful small resorts are 8 miles north of Tarpon Springs. For beauty, trees, flowers, peacefulness, temperate weather, lovely homes, excellent hotels, the placid Pithlachascotee River for fishing and boating, and lovely citrus groves, these little towns have few equals.

NEW SMYRNA BEACH, FLORIDA—On both banks of the Indian River and flanks a firm ocean beach for bathing or driving—near Ponce de Leon Inlet. Fine fishing and hunting, tennis, lawn bowling and shuffleboard. Ruins of Old Spanish Missions and Fort nearby. Good hotels and other accommodations.

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA—Capital of one of America's most historic sections, and the hub of "Tidewater" Virginia. Today Norfolk is a world port, a great industrial center and an inviting all-year resort. Excellent metropolitan hotels, five adjacent resorts: Virginia Beach, Ocean View, Willoughby, Chesapeake Beach and Cape Henry (including Virginia State Park). Norfolk is one of the Atlantic Coast Line's port terminals and the Norfolk-Portsmouth Area is one of paramount importance in National Defense activities.

Rainbow Springs—A Florida scenic wonder

OCALA, FLORIDA—One of the state's most diversified communities with golf, hunting, fishing, citrus groves, general farming, purebred cattle ranches, thoroughbred horses, and manufacturing. Silver Springs, one of the world's natural wonders, is nearby. Glass bottom boats and jungle cruises show the visitors rare botanical growth, unusual views of underwater life and tropical scenery. Beautiful gardens. Other attractions include the Ocala National Forest, gross area of 430,000 acres, and Ross Allen's Reptile Institute at Silver Springs, the setting for the best seller, "The Yearling", and where it and many Tarzan pictures have been photographed.

ORLANDO, FLORIDA—The largest of Florida's inland cities, and one of the most beautiful in America, 55,000 permanent population, 100,000 in winter. It is the banking center of central Florida's citrus industry, with thousands of acres of orange and grapefruit groves rolling across the surrounding territory. Splendid roads stretch from Orlando in all directions, making it ideal headquarters for visitors wishing to see gardens, and beauties of interior Florida. Sanlando Springs, fairyland of tropical verdure, enhanced by plantings to add color and fragrance, is nearby and easily reached from Orlando—also from Sanford.

Old "Castillo de San Marcos", St. Augustine, Florida

Orlando's recreational facilities include golf, tennis, bride paths, bathing, municipal solarium, park games, etc. Excellent fishing (large mouth black bass to March 15th) and bird and deer shooting in season. This season's scheduled sports program includes golf and tennis tournaments, horse show, fishing and contests.

Modern hotels, apartments, homes and rooming houses for exacting guests; schools from kindergarten to college accept students throughout school year. Social and fraternal clubs, 60 churches, library, perfect climate, and beautiful surroundings round out Orlando's claims for consideration from anyone seeking the best.

The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad provides through service on one-night schedules from New York and the East to Orlando and from Chicago to Jacksonville connecting with Orlando trains.

ORMOND AND ORMOND BEACH, FLORIDA—One city divided by the Halifax River, each with its own Post Office, and only 5 miles from Daytona Beach. The Atlantic Ocean is nearby offering bathing and surf fishing. Good hotels—The Ormond, and Coquina, and a celebrated golf course. Casements Preparatory School for girls located here.

PALATKA, FLORIDA—Adjacent to the Atlantic Coast Line tracks about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile south of the station is famed Palatka Ravine Gardens, a municipally-owned sub-tropical fairyland containing more than 100,000 azalea plants. On the slopes of 85 acres of natural ravines, ranging from 120 to 70 feet in depth, are thousands of other tropical plants, shrubs, flowers, lordly pines, magnolias, oaks, dogwoods and native trees. Spring-fed streams provide reflecting pools. There are miles of motor trails and footpaths. The "Court of States," a formal garden, displays the 48 State Flags at the entrance. Nearby are the Administration Building, Pavilion, free picnic grounds, and the Azalea Bowl, a splendid athletic plant. Nominal admission charged. Golf, hunting, boating and fishing.

PALM BEACH, FLORIDA—Across Lake Worth from West Palm Beach is Palm Beach, Queen of American Winter Resorts. Palatial homes and hotels, an all-pervading air of wealth and luxury, exotic tropical foliage, tasteful landscaping, magnificent yachts and house-boats afloat on Lake Worth, the Atlantic on the East, all combine to create an ideal and dream-like resort. The older architecture is reminiscent of Spain; the newer homes show the influence of the Mediterranean, Bermuda, with colonial well represented. There are diversions and accommodations to suit every conceivable personal taste of visitors.

[18] PALMETTO, FLORIDA—Is on the north bank of the Manatee River, opposite Bradenton. Fine fishing in the river and Bays. The "capital" of the winter vegetable growing area of the west coast, with back country of rich farms and grovelands.

PASS-A-GRILLE, FLORIDA—An island gem, adjacent to St. Petersburg, fanned by cool breezes and kissed by blue waters of the Gulf of Mexico. Excellent fishing, yachting, bathing and other water sports.

PERRY, FLORIDA—The south end of the "Perry Cut-Off." On route of "The Southland."

PLANT CITY, FLORIDA—"The World's Winter Strawberry Capital." Largest farmers' state market in the South, with many produce processing plants. 20 miles east of Tampa on A. C. L. main line.

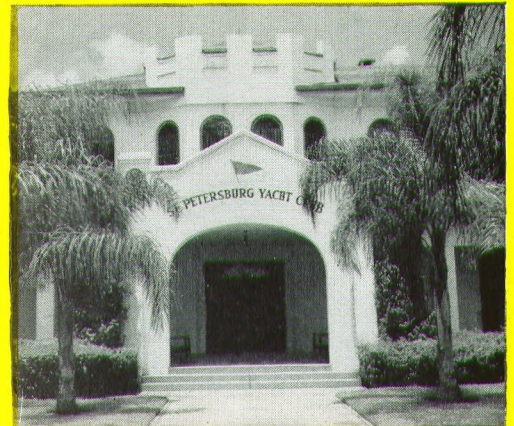

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, FLORIDA—Beautiful ocean front year round resort, 23 miles from Jacksonville via paved highway. Country club atmosphere—Club Plan—luxurious accommodations. Golf on one of the finest courses in America, tennis courts, putting courses, pitching-putt. Bath club with two fresh water pools. Superb surf bathing, fishing, archery—healthful climate.

Admirably served by the club-like Charlotte Harbor Hotel, providing a championship grass green golf course, quail shooting, tennis, swimming (includes open air pool on hotel grounds), yachting, sun baths, recreational park, etc. Eagles Nest Lodge and Pickering Lodge provide fine service for hunters and fishermen.

RAINBOW SPRINGS, FLORIDA—A beauty gem, 4 miles north of Dunnellon—not commercialized. Crystal-clear water with submarine boats from which to see rare fish and aquicultural life through portholes. Florida's only scenic waterfall. Cottages with all conveniences. Lodge and dining room available. E. J. Phillips, President, Dunnellon, Fla.

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA—Rich in history and tradition; capital of the Old South; inspiring commercial, industrial and cultural leader of the New South. Visit Richmond. See its classic Capitol (designed by Jefferson), the White House of the Confederacy, Battle Abbey, Old St. John's Church, where Patrick Henry delivered his deathless "Liberty or Death" oration, the Valentine Museum, the Poe Shrine, the homes of Chief Justice Marshall, General Robert E. Lee, and many other historic shrines. Enjoy Richmond's excellent hotels, its parks, splendid golf courses and facilities for other outdoor sports, etc. Stay long enough to visit Williamsburg, so magnificently restored by Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr.; Jamestown, cradle of Colonial history; Yorktown, where our independence was won, and some of Tide Water Virginia's famous Colonial homes, from whence came men of brains and patriotism to add luster to our national life—all within 65 miles.

ROCKLEDGE, FLORIDA—Is on the Indian River adjoining Cocoa. Golf, fishing, hunting, tennis.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.—An attractive and convenient stop-over point. Golf. Good hotels.

ST. AUGUSTINE, FLORIDA—"Oldest City in the United States," with an unbroken history antedating the birth of Plymouth's Pilgrims! This mellow old urban Matriarch retains much of its past for today's visitors to enjoy. St. Augustine was sacked and burned by Drake a generation before Jamestown was settled. Castillo de San Marcos is the best preserved mediaeval fortification in the western hemisphere and is open to visitors daily. The Oldest House with the Webb Memorial Library and Casa de Canonosa, Fountain of Youth, Oldest Wooden Schoolhouse, Catholic Cathedral, Spanish Treasury Building, La Leche Shrine and many other glorious heritages remain for the enjoyment and study of the thousands who visit the Ancient City annually. Here, too, is the World's largest Alligator Farm and the Lightner Museum of Hobbies reputedly the largest collection in the World. Excellent accommodations, surf-bathing, fishing the year around, golfing, boating, etc., offer a well rounded program of entertainment. The Atlantic Coast Line and the Florida East Coast Railway operate through trains to St. Augustine without change from North, East and West. Ponte Vedra may be reached from here via motor. Marine Studios are only 18 miles south.

ST. CLOUD, FLORIDA—Situated on the south banks of beautiful Lake East Tohopekaliga, with miles of sandy bathing beach. Good hotels, amusement parks, and public halls.

ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA—The terminus of the Atlantic Coast Line on the Pinellas Peninsula, which juts out into the blue waters of the Gulf of Mexico. St. Petersburg has a spirit of hospitality and gaiety befitting its slogan, "The Sunshine City."

The city offers recreation and amusement facilities to suit all ages and tastes: golf, lawn bowling, shuffleboard, horse shoe pitching, tennis, sun baths in a fine spa pool and solarium, a coliseum and beautiful parks. The Greater Gulf Beaches extending north from Pass-A-Grille through Treasure and Madeira Islands, Redington Beach, the Surf Club, the Bath Club and Indian Rocks on the gulf are 15 to 30 minutes drive from the city and are among the finest bathing beaches in the country. The famous pier provides dancing, stages, boat landings, complete equipment for amusement—and fishing! Everybody fishes at St. Petersburg—from kids to octogenarians. Every day in the year fishermen, with Pelican “kibitzers”, are on the pier wetting their lines, and boats are leaving for the gulf, or other famous fishing spots on the coast. The most important Fishing Tournament is the Tarpon Round-Up from early May to late July. St. Petersburg Invitation Golf Tournament is held in early spring. The spring Festival of States about March 15th, and the St. Petersburg to Havana Sailboat Races about the same date, are nationally recognized events and attract many visitors. Cultural advantages are outstanding. There are well attended churches of all denominations, schools are free to kindergarten, grammar and high school pupils. Here are the homes of the Florida Military Academy, Admiral Farragut Naval Academy Prep. School, the St. Petersburg Jr. College, Trinity College (Co-educational, interdenominational institution, controlled by the Florida Bible Institute and Seminary).

St. Petersburg is prepared to take care of all visitors with its hundreds of hotels, thousands of apartment houses, and many furnished homes at reasonable rentals.

SANFORD, FLORIDA—On main line of Atlantic Coast Line. Fishing, hunting, golf, boat trips on St. Johns River, tourist center, shuffleboard and tennis. Municipal zoo. Greyhound racing, trotting horses at Seminole Driving Park, beautiful Sanlando Springs, and the largest and oldest Cypress tree in America nearby.

SANIBEL-CAPTIVA, FLORIDA—Off the gulf coast near Ft. Myers, from where it is reached direct via Singleton Boat Line, or by auto or taxi to Punta Rassa thence daily ferry service. Unsurpassed fishing waters surround these islands, especially fine tarpon grounds. Sanibel Island Beach, according to leading conchologists, offers largest variety of shells on the continent.

SARASOTA, FLORIDA—A thrilling city to visit—a wonderful place to live. Where the land of tropical beauty and the emerald green waters of the Gulf create a veritable paradise for vacationists and permanent residents alike. The cool summer breezes and warm winter sunshine make living ideal the year around. Two fine eighteen hole golf courses. Miles of white sand beaches. Surf and fresh water swimming at the famous Lido Beach Casino. International Tarpon Tournament and year round fishing contests. SAVANNAH, GEORGIA'S BIRTHPLACE—Founded by General Oglethorpe in 1733. As a quick refuge from Indian or Spanish attacks, "Squares" were provided. These are now beautiful parks at street intersections. Savannah offers visitors an ideal all year climate. Proximity of ocean and gulf stream eliminate temperature extremes. Gorgeous scenic drives, out-of-door sports with 3 golf courses. Excellent hotels and that rare cocktail of cordiality only possible from a cultured citizenry which enjoys the good life and understands the art of sharing it with visitors. Modernity has not spoiled the city's romantic past. Historic shrines abound: The Chatham Artillery, oldest continuous service military organization in the U. S.—with its Armory door guarded by cannon captured at Yorktown, presented by General Washington. John Wesley founded here the world's first Sunday School. Bethesda Orphanage is the oldest in America. Here also is the oldest theater still in use, General Sherman's headquarters and the home of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts of America. From Savannah sailed the first steamer that ever crossed an ocean—a Savannah enterprise. Being first is a Savannah habit. The late Dr. Herty's great discovery of the Southern pine as material for manufacture of paper is recent Savannah history.

SEA ISLAND, GEORGIA—The Cloister Hotel, open the year round and patronized by a discriminating clientele, is the nucleus around which the life of Sea Island revolves. Sports include golf, skeet, riding, fishing, tennis, sailing, bathing in surf or pool, cycling, dancing and many lawn sports. The invigorating climate lends added zest to the various sport's activities throughout the year. See BRUNSWICK, GEORGIA.

SEBRING, FLORIDA—This delightful resort fronts on Lake Jackson, offers splendid boating and fishing. In the heart of famous Ridge Section Sebring has one of State's outstanding golf courses and excellent hotels. Pure soft tasteless water. Highlands Hammock State Park, a beautiful and interesting 2,000 acre natural jungle of mighty trees and rare tropical undergrowth, accessible to public, with parking space for autos 25 cents, is 6 miles from Sebring.

SILVER SPRINGS, FLORIDA—See Ocala.

STUART, FLORIDA—Is the eastern terminus of Cross-State Canal. It faces St. Lucie Inlet, with Jensen Beach nearby, and is ideal headquarters for both salt and fresh water fishermen. Golf on St. Lucie Course near Port Sewall. Write Martin County Chamber of Commerce, Stuart, Florida, for free copy of 120-page Fishing Guide, a handbook for Game Fishing in South Florida.

SUMMERVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA—Fifteen miles paved roads from ACL Charleston Station is Summerville, Carolina's famous "Flower Town." Flowers and pine trees follow its winding streets into ozone-laden forests. Golf and hunting. Excellent hotels.

TAMPA, FLORIDA—Located on beautiful Tampa Bay on the Gulf Coast, modern cosmopolitan Tampa is both a vigorous industrial city and a splendid tourist center with a year-round appeal. Long famous for its production of America's finest handmade Havana cigars, its colorful Latin quarter and superb Spanish restaurants, Tampa—at the hub of Florida's most thickly populated region—has become the shopping and distribution center for an ultra-rich agricultural, fruit growing, mining and manufacturing area. It is the center of the world's citrus canning industry.

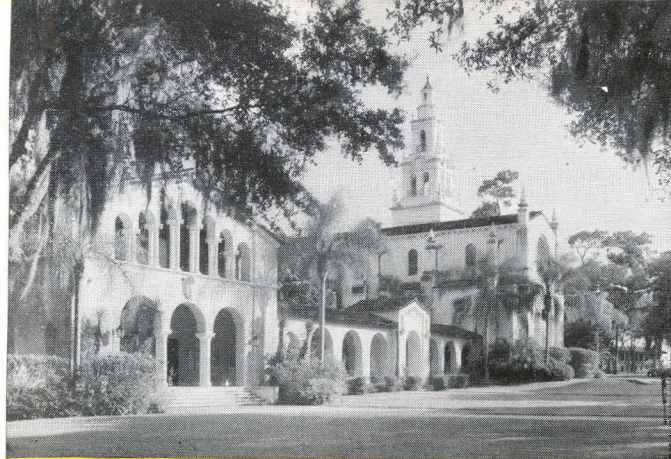

Because of its accessibility to all points of interest in the state, many Florida visitors find it desirable to make Tampa their headquarters, meanwhile enjoying all the advantages, comforts and amusements of a great city, with an abundance of recreational facilities, including fishing, sailing, golf, tennis, riding, hunting, shuffleboard, and horseshoe pitching. The city maintains a Tourist Center all the year round on the banks of the picturesque Hillsborough River. Racing fans enjoy Dog Racing from late December, and Horse Racing at Sunshine Park starts in January. The Florida State Fair (largest winter exposition in the world) will be held January 31st to February 11th inclusive. Tampa's famous and unique Gasparilla Pirate Festival will be held during the week of February 6th. The Latin Fiesta March 11th through the 18th presents gayly costumed señoritas and caballeros in rumbas and tangos to lilt-ing Spanish love songs. The towering minarets of the University of Tampa, the most striking example of Moorish architecture in America, lend an exotic flavor to the city's skyline.

Sightseeing opportunities are many: To the nearby beaches, to Hillsborough State Park, and to beautiful Dupree Gardens, "The Blossom Center of Florida". This former private estate offers a main garden of 25 acres containing over 10,000 azaleas and a profusion of gardenias, japonicas, roses and great beads of spring flowers in gorgeous bloom. Go to Tampa by train.

TARPON SPRINGS, FLORIDA—Located on Spring Bayou, Anclote River and Gulf of Mexico. Served by through trains from Chicago, New York, etc. Excellent accommodations, including The Upham House, in its own gulf-bordered tract of 125 acres. Ideal for rest, relaxation, hunting, fishing, boating and golf. New Port Richey and Weekiwachee Spring are respectively 8 and 30 miles north of Tarpon Springs, which is their nearest railroad station.

TAVARES, FLORIDA—County seat of Lake County, with its 1,400 bass infested fresh water lakes. Excellent fishing, hunting, bathing.

THOMASVILLE, GEORGIA—Widely known as the "City of Roses Among the Pines". It is located in the Southwest corner or "Piney Woods" section of Georgia on a ridge 273 ft. above sea level. Having four distinct seasons, its climate made it the South's original Winter Resort. Many of the nation's notables maintain large plantation homes in the nearby beautiful countryside. It is the home of the Archbold Memorial Hospital. Golf, fishing, and hunting are enjoyed by all during the entire year or season. An annual Rose Festival is fittingly held each spring which attracts thousands of visitors. A garden spot, it also holds an annual Camellia Show. Its streets are bordered with roses, dogwood, redbud, and all flowering shrubs peculiar to this section.

TITUSVILLE, FLORIDA—Located about halfway between Jacksonville and Miami on the Indian River. It is 10 miles from the Atlantic Ocean on the east and a short distance from the St. Johns River on the west. Fresh water fishing, and hunting for duck, quail, deer, and turkey. It is in the Indian River citrus belt and surrounded by many packing houses.

UMATILLA, FLORIDA—A "Lake Region" beauty spot. Hunting, fishing. In citrus fruit belt. Site of Harry Anna Crippled Children's Home.

VERO BEACH, FLORIDA—County seat of Indian River County, center of production and shipment of famous Indian River oranges and grapefruit. McKee Jungle Gardens, a wonderland of native and exotic tropical growth is 3 miles south. Ocean bathing, golf, fine fishing.

WARM SPRINGS, GEORGIA—Born in an earthquake eons ago, one of the miracle springs of the world—still gushing 1,809 gallons of warm, healing water a minute. Here Franklin D. Roosevelt regained his vigor to become our war President, and as a great humanitarian started the Warm Springs Foundation for treating the nation's afflicted children.

Tobacco farm near Wilson, N. C.

With generous Georgians' splendid assistance the Foundation's work today is deservedly world famous. A visit to Warm Springs is a glorious experience and an education in applied Christianity. Warm Springs is about 75 miles south of Atlanta (on ACL RR) and a good, all-year hotel, The Warm Springs (Mr. F. W. Allcorn, Jr., Owner-Manager), offers excellent service.

WAYCROSS, GEORGIA—Gateway to the Okefenokee. In the heart of the world's richest naval stores belt and the famous Georgia-Florida flue-cured tobacco belt. Waycross has developed an entrance to Okefenokee Swamp, "Land of Trembling Earth". Okefenokee Swamp Park, seven miles south of Waycross, is open to visitors every day in the year, offering boat cruises along the headwaters of the romantic Suwannee River. Okefenokee, a 600-square mile natural wonderland, is a Federal wildlife refuge, harboring many forms of plant, animal and bird life that are threatened with extinction in other parts of the world.

"Way Down Upon The Suwannee River"

WEEKIWACHEE SPRING, FLORIDA—Florida's newest attraction and the world's first underwater theater (capacity 100) from which may be viewed and photographed (bring your camera): Talented swimmers presenting the underwater adagio and other graceful and photogenic ballet numbers. Action: "In" (not "On") a transparent stage of magical beauty and splendor. Backdrops: An underwater mountain, ravines, canyons and exotic marine life. Lighting: Crystal clear, sky-blue water. Location: 30 miles north of Tarpon Springs (ACL Station) on U. S. West Coast highway 19. Brooksville is 12 miles east of the Spring.

WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA—Across Lake Worth from famous Palm Beach, this City of 45,000, long recognized as one of Florida's leading winter resorts, is now one of its popular summer vacation spots. A kindly all-year climate is provided by the trade winds, warmed in winter and cooled in summer by the Gulf Stream, which flows close to the shore. Guarded public beaches may be reached by three free bridges connecting West Palm Beach with Palm Beach. Deep sea fishing, with charter boats available is highlighted by the Annual Silver Sailfish Derby in late January. Additional contests offer trophies for other deep-sea, tidewater and fresh water fish abounding in these waters. Tournaments in tennis, golf, shuffleboard, boating and horsemanship are scheduled. Norton Gallery and School of Art is one of the Nation's outstanding cultural attractions providing concerts, lectures, forums, etc. Rates are moderate at many hotels, apartments and rentable homes; "superior" rated school system through Junior College; an all-year recreation program in a complete park system.

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA—Progressive Colonial city and state port. Noted for its gardens, Airlie, Greenfield Park and Orton Plantation—spring blooming season, but interesting all year. Practically overnight by train from New York, Washington, Atlanta and Florida. Golf, tennis, fishing, bathing on several nearby beaches. Good hotels and a cordial welcome await visitors.

WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA—The world's largest Bright Leaf Tobacco Market. Tobacco auction sales (open to the public) are held from about mid-August to mid-November. An interesting sight. Golf, tennis.

WINTER HAVEN, FLORIDA—"City of 100 Lakes", 221 feet above sea level. Produces and ships annually one-tenth of Florida's huge citrus crop. Florida Cypress Gardens, one of the South's finest gardens and mecca for camera fans, is nearby. Annual "Florida Citrus Exposition" held in February. Shuffleboard Clubhouse, football stadium, amphitheater on beautiful Silver Lake shore—seating 2,500. Home of Radio Station WSIR, community playhouse, Elks Club, Moose Club, etc. Sportsmen's Club has two fish rearing pools, and stocks Winter Haven lakes with bass and bream in addition to state hatchery stocking. Winter Haven is an ideal home city for the average American family.

WINTER PARK, FLORIDA—Situated on the main line of the Atlantic Coast Line, is surrounded by clear fresh-water lakes teeming with bass. Has a beautiful system of well-kept parks. Well-paved streets and roads, splendid homes and tropical plants and shrubs in profusion. Rollins College, located here, affords high-class educational advantages and attracts many visitors. Ample hotel accommodations. Musicals, lectures, art exhibits, etc., are given during the season. Truly lives up to its slogan—"A City of Homes."
