

Season's Greetings

The Great Northern thanks the people who so liberally patronized it in 1923. It has endeavored to render good service to its patrons and hopes to continually improve that service and to merit further patronage. To all in the spirit of the season, the Great Northern Railway wishes a joyous Christmas and a happy and successful New Year.

Great Northern Railway

