LIMITED

Portland, Oregon.
1926.

Dear Greeter:

Our ad on the outside back cover of the May issue of the Tourist and Shopping Guide tells the truth - THE ORIENTAL LIMITED is "The Finest Train East".

Ten editions of this train fresh from the Pullman Shops with distinctive color scheme of restful greenish-gray and blue with cherry tint with appointments like a great chain of hotels on wheels are running constantly between Portland, Puget Sound and Chicago. The "NEW ORIENTAL LIMITED" is proving one of the strongest advertisements the Pacific Northwest ever had. Its features include separate shower baths for men and women, men's smoking and club rooms, maid service, woman's lounge, larger dressing rooms, daily newspapers, daily telegraphic news bulletins with baseball scores and stock market quotations, and barber-valet service.

The cuisine is being held to a high standard which is eliciting much commendation and praise. The personnel of the train crews is courteous, obliging and well-trained. The "NEW ORIENTAL LIMITED" is truly a train of real distinction - "An Aristocrat of the Rails". It leaves Portland daily at 8:00 PM carrying standard sleeping cars through to Chicago without change in 70 hours, connecting at that point with lines East.

If we can be of service to you at any time in taking care of yourself or your guests, please address one of the undersigned.
