

SWIFTCURRENT FALLS, GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

St. Paul, Minn.,

Dear Sir or Madam:—

Your recent request for Great Northern literature and information concerning a trip has been received. We send you herewith the literature requested and are referring your inquiry to our Mr. M. M. Hubbert, representative of our line in the territory in which you reside. If you are further interested in a trip to Glacier National Park, Pacific Northwest, Alaska, California, the Orient, or other points reached by our line, please fill in the attached self-addressed post card and mail. You will then hear direct from our representative who will either write or call on you, furnish detailed information regarding fares and train service, reserve your sleeping car accommodations and otherwise assist you in planning your trip.

I want to take this opportunity of thanking you for addressing us, and assure you it is a privilege to give you literature and information concerning the Great Northern and the country it serves.
