

Additional sources of iron ore are being opened up by the Tioga mine in a new area south of Great Northern's main line in northern Minnesota. After two years of preparation, including stripping 5.5 million cubic yards of over-burden, some 400,000 long tons of iron ore were shipped from this new operation in 1955.

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY CO.

67th ANNUAL REPORT 1955