

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

DAWN MIST FALLS

MOUNT JACKSON

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY

BOOK

MARK

READ

Most libraries have splendid books on the historic Northwest. Ask your librarian for the following or similar titles.

"Picturesque America"

By J. F. Kane

"Round About America"

By Peck & Johnson

"Roaming The Rockies"

"Seeing The Far West"

By John T. Faris

"Blazed Trails Of The Old Frontier"

By Agnes C. Laut

"Blackfeet Tales of Glacier National Park"

By James Willard Schultz

"Avalanche"

By Albert L. S. Perry

"Indian Why Stories"

"Red Mother"

By Frank Bird Linderman

"Travels in Alaska"

By John Muir

TRAVEL

By rail this summer. Visit your own National Parks . . . the places you have read about. See Glacier . . . Yellowstone Rocky Mountain . . . Mount Rainier . . . Mount Baker . . . Crater Lake . . . Yosemite . . . Grand Canyon . . . Zion . . . Bryce . . . Olympic Peninsula . . . Alaska . . . California . . . California International Exposition.

Following are some of the national conventions that will be held in the Pacific Northwest and California this year:

American Library Association

San Francisco, California (June)

General Federation of Women's Clubs

San Francisco, California (May)

American Bar Association

San Francisco, California (July 10-15)

Luther League of America

Long Beach, California (July 6-10)

Hotel Greeters Association

Seattle, Washington (June)

National Education Association

San Francisco, California (July)

WRITE

For information about a rail trip to any of the places named. State whether you are interested in an independent or escorted tour. If you are a student state grade.

GREAT NORTHERN TRAVEL SERVICE

504 Finance Building

Philadelphia, Pa.

Form 6062

Printed in U.S.A.