

MUSIC IN THE AIR

WHETHER it is the whir of the golf ball, or the click of the camera shutter, or the sing of the taut line, or the crack of the rifle that he or she loves, the tourist will find music attuned to his own particular ear in the Spokane country.

It is the country of the great glad out-of-doors. A festival of summer good things is ever awaiting the visitor.

Automobile and electric train make possible a wide variety of side tours of beauty and pleasure.

None should overlook Spokane when bound Exposition-wards, this year. You may always count upon a friend won, when you route the wanderer through
