Jasper National Park

... WHERE MIGHTY MOUNTAINS KISS THE SKY

Twice the size of Delaware, Jasper National Park straddles the north-flowing Athabasca River. Hub of Park activities is the town of Jasper, and nearby Jasper Park Lodge. Breathtaking scenery is everywhere: Snowy Mt. Edith Cavell, Pyramid Mountain, Athabasca Falls.

A "must" side trip: emerald-green Maligne Lake in the soaring Queen Elizabeth Ranges, flecked with active glaciers. Also tour Fiddle River Canyon, Miette Hot Springs, Punch Bowl Falls. Fish for fighting trout... swim in heated pools... play the championship golf course. Something doing every precious moment!

FROM CANOES on azure-blue Lac Beauvert, visitors get a fine view of Jasper Park Lodge in its setting of rustic luxury.

JASPER GOLF COURSE—18 holes stretching over 6,700 scenic yards. So much to see that it's hard to keep one's head down!

ON MT. ATHABASCA lies one of the Columbia Icefield's principal glaciers. Tour its frozen slopes in a snowmobile.

Columbia Icefield

LARGEST GLACIAL MASS
SOUTH OF THE ARCTIC CIRCLE

Rising more than 12,000 feet above sea level, the Columbia Icefield's frozen vastness covers 110 square miles! Out of its maze of glaciers trickle streams that swell into mighty rivers and journey on to the Pacific, Arctic and Atlantic Oceans.

Prepare to see tremendous panoramas as you motor to the foot of Athabasca Glacier. Every mile brings new revelations of massive crags and ridges, of wild game in a veritable zoo without bars.

A three-mile ride over Athabasca Glacier's living ice in a brightly painted snowmobile serves as a fitting climax to an awesome day.

TWIN FALLS, one of Nature's more lavish spectacles, attracts visitors to Yoho Valley, near Banff National Park.

WATCH 'EM BUST wild horses at the Calgary Stampede, en route to Banff and Jasper from Glacier National Park.

GO GREAT...

Go Great Northern!

A TRIP YOU'LL REMEMBER... A LAND YOU CAN'T FORGET!

Canadian Rockies! There's magic in the name, majesty in the mountain scenery. And getting there is half the fun when you go the scenic Great Northern route via Glacier National Park in Montana. Open-top motor coaches take you through gorgeous scenery to Waterton Lakes Park across the border, where Canadian buses whisk you to Banff, Lake Louise, Jasper.

Canada's

BANFF-LAKE LOUISE JASPER NATIONAL PARK

Nature must have been in a lavish mood when she chose the mountain scenery and glacial lakes surrounding Banff, Lake Louise and the Jasper Park area. And man complemented the scenic grandeur with charming hotels and chalets.

Some 200 miles north of the peaceful U.S.-Canadian boundary lies Banff and Lake Louise country. This spectacular fairyland offers the visitor a bounteous diet of startling vistas, sparkling adventure, good food and fun.

On riding and hiking trails, you'll see richly rewarding views at every turn. Melting glaciers send sylvan streams coursing down steep valleys to form emerald lakes. Leaping trout lunge at the angler's lure. Heated swimming pools and sporty golf courses crowd your days with never-ending pleasures.

North via the Columbia Icefield Highway is Jasper National Park, 4,200 square miles of fanciful wilderness.

Few regions on earth offer the sight-seer so much beauty, and match it with such an array of exciting things to do.

Picturesque Banff

CONTINENTAL TRADITION AMID MAJESTIC MOUNTAINS

MORAINE LAKE, nestled beneath the sheer cliffs of the Valley of Ten Peaks, is easy to reach by bus or hiking trail from Lake Louise, in Banff National Park.

Oldest and second largest of Canada's national parks, Banff spreads over 2,500 square miles of rugged Rocky Mountain terrain. Roads and trails radiating from the town of Banff, at the foot of Mt. Rundle in the park's heart, offer countless sightseeing thrills. Among the more popular side trips: Tunnel Mountain and the Hoodoos; the chair lift on Mt. Norquay; Cave and Basin Hot Springs, with swimming pools of warm sulphur water. Hiking, horseback riding, swimming, golf, tennis and fishing well-stocked lakes and streams are leading attractions for the active vacationer.

CHATEAU LAKE LOUISE, famed the world over for its luxury and magnificent setting. Riding, and swimming in a warm, spring-fed pool are popular diversions.

VICTORIA GLACIER, sloping icily down to Lake Louise, provides a cool vista for guests relaxing at the Chateau.

Lake Louise

...QUEEN OF THE ROCKIES

About 40 miles west of Banff lies Lake Louise, gem-like in its glacial setting. A wreath of towering snow-capped peaks reflect in its calm blue waters. Close to its emerald shore rises stately Chateau Lake Louise . . . a picture of luxurious loveliness.

Favorite side trips include: Moraine Lake, circled by ten precipitous peaks . . . each over 10,000 feet high; Field and Emerald Lake in neighboring Yoho National Park; Takakkaw Falls, third highest in the world.
