GO GREAT NORTHERN!
GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

Easy to reach...easy to see!

Take the scenic Great Northern route direct to Glacier, America's only national park on a main rail line. Tour the Park comfortably, in open-top motor coaches.

A MILLION ACRES OF MAJESTIC SCENERY

A vast and unspoiled wonderland, preserved for your enjoyment just as ancient glaciers carved it—this is Glacier National Park, high in the shining mountains of Western Montana. Enormous sheets of moving ice created its soaring cliffs, jewel-like lakes, plunging waterfalls, hanging valleys...fantastic sights duplicated nowhere else on earth.

But Glacier today is more than lofty peaks, breathless beauty. It offers myriad pleasures—from golf and water sports to angling for fighting trout. Open-top motor coaches, cruising Glacier Park's 100 miles of smooth highways and stopping at fine hotels, let the visitor relax and enjoy far more scenic wonders than can possibly be seen from a private car.

Over 1000 miles of well-marked trails afford easy access by foot or horseback to areas remote from asphalt.

At the heart of Western vacationlands, Glacier Park is an ideal starting point for a summer of varied vacation thrills.

MANY GLACIER HOTELS in the heart of the Park's finest scenery are an easy walk...a brief ride from active glaciers, snow-splashed lakes.

DELIGHTFUL HOTELS in magnificent mountain settings

Fine accommodations, superb meals are yours in surroundings of rustic luxury at Glacier Park's American Plan hotels. Each is a self-contained vacation resort famed for friendliness and active fun.
