GREAT THINGS TO DO ...and see in the "Big Cities"

PHILADELPHIA—America's birthplace. Visit Independence Hall (above), see the Liberty Bell. Home of Ben Franklin, "The city of brotherly love" is modern, friendly, charming. A major publishing center. Superb hotels and restaurants.

A trip "back East" is a journey into the vital, exciting nerve centers of American life.

Visit Pittsburgh and Detroit—hubs of American industry. Venture into the world of art—the great museums, galleries and symphonies of New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Boston. Relive early American history in Boston, Philadelphia and Williamsburg, the "authentic" colonial city. And every American should see Washington, D.C.—Congress, the White House, Lincoln Memorial, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

The bright lights of Broadway beckon you—Gershwin, Kern, Rodgers and Hammerstein. Or Shaw and Tennessee Williams and Shakespeare. The Stork Club, Waldorf, Latin Quarter—and dancing 'til dawn.

Major league sports events, zoos, Niagara Falls, skyscrapers, Chicago Stockyards, Harvard Yard. There's life and fun in the eastern cities—and history. See these jewels that crown American civilization!

WASHINGTON, D.C.—inspiring, historic! See Congress in session—the White House. Visit Lincoln Memorial, Washington Monument, Smithsonian Institution. Stroll broad avenues, enjoy international cuisine!

CHICAGO—that "wonderful town"! Gay night life, superb hotels and dining highlight this busy railroad and merchandising center. But, there's another side—the fabulous Museum of Science and Industry (above), symphony, opera, Adler Planetarium, Shedd Aquarium, beautiful Grant Park.

PITTSBURGH—"Steel City". Hear the whirr, see the vigor of America's industrial might. The "Golden Triangle" redevelopment project (below) is a marvel of modern architecture.

GO EAST

TO CHICAGO, NEW YORK, OTHER
GREAT AND HISTORIC CITIES

GO GREAT...

GO GREAT NORTHERN

Go Great Northern across the scenic top of the nation to Chicago and fascinating Eastern travel adventures

Mile after marvelous mile of Great Northern's route—from Seattle and Portland east to Chicago—you'll see some of America's greatest scenery unfold.

Spectacular Cascade Range, crowned by Mt. Rainier nearly 3 miles high. The resource-rich Inland Empire surrounding Spokane. Glorious Glacier National Park, high in the wondrous wilderness of Montana's Rockies. Then—across the broad cattle, oil and wheat country of Montana and North Dakota—into Minnesota, Land of 10,000 Lakes.

Finally, the beautiful Twin Cities of Minneapolis-St. Paul... soaring Mississippi River Palisades... Chicago and the start of your Eastern vacation.

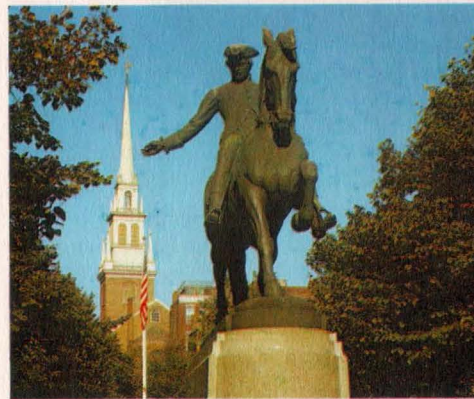

A great trip all the way on Great Northern's transcontinental streamliners—Western Star or incomparable Empire Builder.

FUN, GLAMOUR, EXCITEMENT...HISTORIC SIGHTS

DETROIT—"car capital" of the world. Visit the fabulous River Rouge plant, Greenfield Village. Take tunnel under the Detroit River to Windsor, Ontario—only Canadian city south of U. S. mainland.
