On the front cover of this menu is reproduced "Buffalo Hunt," one of the masterpieces of Western art by Charles M. Russell, the Montana cowboy-artist. A larger reproduction of the painting appears in the observation-lounge car of this train. Largely self-taught, Russell had no peer in the depiction of the Western horse, the plains cowboy and Indian. He died in Great Falls, Montana, in 1926. Russell pictures reproduced on the Western Star fleet are on exhibition in the Mint, in Great Falls.

The scenic and historic route of the Western Star stretches westward from Chicago via Saint Paul and Minneapolis, Fargo, Grand Forks, and Minot, to the inland seaports of the Pacific Northwest. From Chicago to Saint Paul and Minneapolis the route is that of the Burlington Lines and Westward from the Twin Cities that of Great Northern Railway. Between Spokane, Washington, and Portland, Oregon, the route is that of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway, along the Columbia River.

Great Northern's main line swings West through three time zones; over two major mountain ranges; along the border of Glacier National Park in the Montana Rockies, America's third largest and only national park on the main line of a transcontinental railway, and through the Cascade Tunnel, longest railway tunnel in the Western Hemisphere, 7.79 miles long, arrow straight, concrete lined and electrically illuminated. Rich agricultural, mining, cattle and lumber empires pass in review to the shores of Puget Sound.
