

RAILWAY AGE

APRIL 8, 1950

In over 100 million miles of fast passenger service on the Burlington, a fleet of 86 General Motors Diesel locomotive units has handled scheduled runs better than 95% of their assigned time. Four of the earliest units have completed more than four million miles each. Unsurpassed performance explains why General Motors locomotives are first choice in the rapid dieselization programs of America's leading railroads.

★ ★
Today is the Sixteenth Anniversary of the first run of the Pioneer Zephyr.

ELECTRO-MOTIVE DIVISION

GENERAL MOTORS • LA GRANGE, ILLINOIS

Home of the Diesel Locomotive

Bones Hill