On the road to Dieselization

70 General Motors GP9 Units Delivered to ILLINOIS CENTRAL

Delivery of 70 General Motors GP9 Diesel locomotive units to the Illinois Central was completed in April. Hauling meat, cotton, bananas or any other commodity, these versatile 1750-H.P.

Diesels are proving themselves the most productive motive power a railroad can own — whether for use in isolated districts or in pools with other General Motors motive power.
