"I go by train because I enjoy spaciousness in traveling. I like to move about in leisure, yet feel the exhilaration of speed . . . as miles of lovely New England seaside and countryside flash by my window. Then I like the graciousness of those who look after my comfort . . . the cool cleanliness of modern air-conditioning . . . the pleasure of dining enroute. Yes, I prefer to relax on the train . . . in the certainty of safe arrival, on time for my engagements in the heart of New York, Boston, or wherever I may choose to go in New England, whenever I choose to go."

* Ask your local Ticket Agent about the YANKEE CLIPPER and MERCHANTS LIMITED, crack All-Pullman Limiteds—in 4½ hour service between New York and Boston . . . leaders of the famous Shore Line fleet.

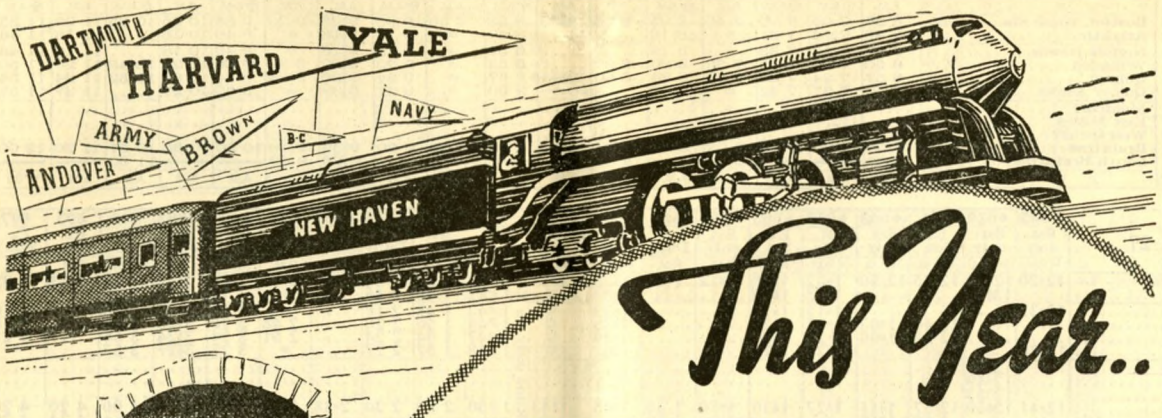
Co-ordinated service - Rail - Highway



This Year..

GO BY TRAIN to the FOOTBALL GAMES!

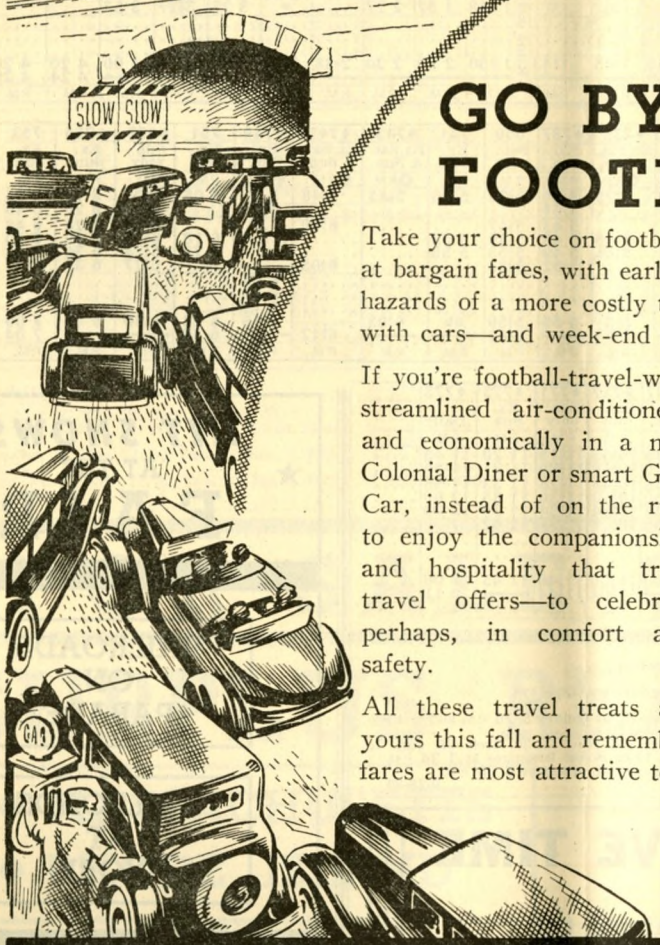
Take your choice on football days—a fast, warm, safe trip to the game at bargain fares, with early arrival—or the delay, fatigue and weather hazards of a more costly trip by automobile, over a highway jammed with cars—and week-end revelers.

If you're football-travel-wise, you'll decide to relax in a New Haven streamlined air-conditioned coach, or Pullman—to dine leisurely and economically in a new Colonial Diner or smart Grill Car, instead of on the run, to enjoy the companionship and hospitality that train travel offers—to celebrate perhaps, in comfort and safety.

All these travel treats are yours this fall and remember fares are most attractive too.



BE THERE FOR THE KICKOFF!

WORLD'S LARGEST STAGE

HERE'S WHAT THE CRITICS SAY!

LUCIUS BEEBE, New York Herald Tribune

"The most compelling interlude at the New York World's Fair also is its largest: the Railroad Exhibit. To a public untutored in the mysteries of railroading it should prove a fascinating pageant and the visualization of a national epic."

ROBERT COLEMAN, New York Daily Mirror

"If you don't think there's drama in the iron horse, just pay a visit to 'Railroads on Parade' at the World's Fair. Here's a spectacle that packs the 'it' of Rosita and her dove dance, the thrills of the Ski Jumpers at Sun Valley, and the educational values of Merrie England's Globe Theatre. Deserves a 21-gun salute."

TRAVIS INGHAM, Stage Magazine

"Railroads on Parade" in the Railroad Exhibit is not to be missed. And I don't care whether you share the high-iron fervor of Lucius Beebe or not. This is really something!"

BURNS MANTLE, New York Daily News

"It is a fine stage spectacle. Keep 'Railroads on Parade' on your Fair list. It's worth seeing. Junior will love it."
