Good Morning!

"I'm Big Bruin from Yellowstone!
They call me 'Holdup Bear'—
Don't worry! On the train I just Hold up the bill-of-fare!"

This Big Brown Bruin from Yellowstone Park has left all his brothers and sisters and uncles and aunts to go for a ride on a Northern Pacific train.

He is thinking, "Wait till I get back to my friends, Old Faithful Geyser and the Paint Pots and Biscuit Pool in the Park. I'm going to tell them all about the little boys and girls I met on the North Coast Limited, the Pacific-Atlantic Express, the 'Comet' and other famous Northern Pacific trains."

He laughs and chuckles fit to burst
Because he's glad he met you.
Says he, "When you come to the Park,
Be sure I'll not forget you!"

"But the only way I can get back there now," says Big Brown Bruin from Yellowstone Park, "is for you to take me, because the dining car steward says I am yours to keep!"

We hope you'll have a pleasant trip and come to ride with us again
—soon!

W. L. Thompson
Superintendent of Dining Cars
