

World's Largest Steam Locomotive

On Display—
A Century of Progress, Chicago

Length, 125 feet.

Height, 16 ft. 4 in.

Tender capacity,
22,000 gals. water;
27 tons coal.

Weight, in working order,
1,118,000 lbs.

A fleet of twelve of these Giants of the Rails is now in Northern Pacific Railway Service. Each locomotive is capable of hauling a mile-long loaded train upgrade. The fire box has a total grate area of 182 square feet and is fed by a mechanical stoker.

MADE IN U. S. A.

