Here's How to Adjust Your Trip to War-Time Requirements

Now, with military demands growing daily—with more war goods to be moved, more soldiers to be transported—travelers too must be enlisted in this mighty War of Movement. We ask your cooperation in making the best use of our transportation facilities by following these suggestions.

GET FULL INFORMATION IN ADVANCE

Use our City Ticket Offices, where available. Don't wait until the last minute.

MAKE YOUR RESERVATION EARLY

Accept whatever accommodations are available, realizing that vital military traffic comes first.

BUY YOUR TICKET IMMEDIATELY

You'll avoid last minute rushes at the station if you buy your ticket when you make your reservation.

NOTIFY US OF CHANGE OF PLANS

Space on trains is valuable. Don't waste it. Cancel reservations promptly.

TRAVEL AT OFF-PEAK PERIODS

If possible, schedule your trip on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday—avoid week-end and holiday traffic.

PURCHASE ROUND-TRIP TICKETS

You save time, trouble and money.
