GLENWOOD CANYON of the Colorado River is a most appropriate meeting point for the east and westbound California Zephyrs. It was in this colorful chasm, in 1944, that the idea of the Vista-Dome was first conceived.

Front Cover:

HORSEBACK RIDERS on Mineral Mountain enjoy a sweeping panorama of Lead King Basin, rimmed by the rugged Snowmass Peaks — one of many scenic thrills in the unspoiled Glenwood Springs-Aspen region.
