The Dining Car

In the perfectly-appointed dining car, each meal is appetizing and delicious, served with quiet care, in variety and profusion.

Special accommodations, including state-room, berths and shower-bath, are provided for the employees.

The Club Car

Besides being a center of social activity on board, the club car has its market reports and late news items direct by telegraph; also, current periodicals and writing facilities.

Cigars and cigarettes, playing cards, mineral waters, and a varied selection of refreshing beverages, may be had of the attentive attendant.

The Ladies' Lounge

Welcome privacy, quiet and freedom prevail in the ladies' lounge and smoking-room. Its shower is always refreshing and invigorating.

An experienced maid-manicurist is in attendance, who also cares for the little ones in the lounge, leaving parents free for relaxation or recreation.

The lounge is located in the observation car.

The Men's Shower

This unusual travel luxury is directly connected with the barber's compartment.

It provides an easy means of continuing the habits of home, hotel or club, and is available day or night.

There is water in abundance, automatically mixed to the desired temperature.

The Barber-Valet

So that Golden State guests may be properly "turned out" at all times, the barber-valet is on hand to cater to the needs of the men, women and children.

The work of one's favorite barber is readily duplicated in this shop in the club car.

And here all garments are promptly and correctly sponged and pressed.

The Library

There are no tiresome times on the Golden State Limited.

Current illustrated weeklies, other periodicals and newspapers of interest, variety and moment, abound in the library.

Likewise, writing material by which to communicate with those interested in the traveler's progress and well-being.

Both are to be found in the club and observation parlor.

The Observation Car

That all may keenly delight in the magnificent scenery en route, the Golden State's new-type observation sun-parlor affords an unobstructed view.

Here a telephone is provided for last-minute messages.

And the observation platform is an ideal spot where one may enjoy a bit of real out-of-doors and its ever-refreshing atmosphere.
