There's nothing like it in railroading! The Turquoise Room is a distinctive private dining room where Super Chief travelers can dine and entertain privately in a manner befitting the fine clubs and exclusive dining rooms of the country.

Turquoise, the traveler's stone, gives this room its name and influences the decorative treatment of gold, silver and blue.

Private parties up to 10 persons can be served in the Turquoise Room and when not reserved for private use, all passengers enjoy this room for relaxation and refreshments served from the Lower Lounge.
