

Of all mankind's primitive weapons, few are as well known as the bow and arrow, which is symbolic of Indian life.

Before modern civilization brought firearms to the Southwest, the Indian depended on the bow and arrow to obtain food and protect himself and his family.

The Indians made their arrows with great care since survival depended on the straight shaft, the sharp point, and just the right amount of feathers.

The Arrow Maker, by E. I. Couse, N.A., is from the Santa Fe Railway collection of paintings featuring Indians of the Southwest.
