AND

Upper Klamath Lake Region

OREGON

INTRODUCTION

To aid all who are seeking suitable stopping places during their summer vacations, this booklet is issued by the Southern Pacific Company, and contains in condensed form descriptions of various California resorts and some in Southern Oregon.

Nearly all of them are within from an hour's to a night's ride from San Francisco or Los Angeles. A few of the places are within from twenty-four to thirty-six hours' journey.

The particulars given include the name and location of the resort (hotel, cottages, or camp with tent-houses); how reached from stations, auto or stage fare; name of manager; the accommodations provided; rates for rooms and meals; facilities for sports and amusements—fishing, hunting, golf, etc., and points of interest in vicinity.

The information, so far as it relates to names and hotel prices, was obtained to as late a date as possible, but of course cannot in every case be guaranteed.

For ready reference the several resorts in the different regions have been grouped under the following captions:
