

How to be a Southern Pacific JUNIOR STEWARDESS-NURSE

All girls like trains. All girls like to play nurse. Naturally, most girls want to be a stewardess-nurse on a Southern Pacific train someday.

Now girls can be a real Southern Pacific Junior Stewardess-Nurse without waiting.

WHO CAN JOIN: any girl who likes trains and nursing. Like regular stewardess-nurses, she should be friendly, courteous and, above all, interested in "Safety First."

WHY JOIN: members of the Southern Pacific Junior Stewardess-Nurse Club receive an official pin and official manual. It is easy. It doesn't cost 1c. And it is a lot of fun.

HOW TO JOIN: First, study the Southern Pacific Train Primer to learn about trains. This way you will be a better stewardess-nurse. Second, answer all the questions inside this leaflet. Correct answers are easy to find in the Train Primer. Three, mail the test to Southern Pacific Junior Stewardess-Nurse Club. You will find the address at the top of the test.

All girls answering most of the questions correctly will be sent an official pin to wear, an official manual to study and carry and a membership signed by Vice-President in Charge of Operations, J. H. Dyer, the man in charge of all Southern Pacific trains.

Hurry! Fill out your test right away so that you can get your official pin and the interesting manual that contains a lot of things you will want to know.
