

WAWONA BIG TREE, one of the giant redwoods (Sequoia gigantea), survivors of the glacial age and found only in California. This tree—4000 years old—is 227 feet high, with a 27-foot archway in its trunk through which the highway passes. Reached by Southern Pacific.

POST

CARD

