

N&W'S Safety Car

An important part in the Norfolk and Western's consistent accident prevention and safety program is played by this safety car, which moves all over the railroad during a year and is visited by thousands of employees. Safety education, including movies and lectures, is the job performed on this special car.

