

Not far by Freeway from Los Angeles, at Anaheim, is never to be forgotten Disneyland, where you'll find a new experience in wonderful entertainment. Each segment of this sixty-five acre wonderland is an adventure in itself . . . on MAIN STREET take an omnibus ride past early-century stores and shops . . . in ADVENTURELAND explore the mysterious world of the tropics . . . visit FRONTIERLAND and transport yourself back into pioneer times . . . relive childhood's happy hours of Alice in Wonderland and Peter Pan in FANTASYLAND and last but not least, in TOMORROWLAND view the future in a rocket ship, travel aboard the streamlined trains of the Disneyland-Alweg Monorail System, sail beneath the Seven Seas in an Atomic-Submarine or race in a bobsled down the "snow-capped" slopes of the Matterhorn Mountain replica.

All this, and much more, is DISNEYLAND . . . hours or days of wonderful family entertainment.

From East Los Angeles station Union Pacific bus, for cities on the Anaheim branch, will deliver patrons direct to Disneyland Hotel, a regular stop. Other nearby resort motels can be reached by taxi from Disneyland Hotel. Likewise on the return trip the bus for East Los Angeles will pick up at Disneyland Hotel. Patrons using the Domeliner "City of Los Angeles," "The Challenger" or the "City of St. Louis" may avail themselves of this service.
