

Known as a "City of Hills", San Francisco's "Nob Hill" is perhaps the best known of any of the city's many eminences. The site was selected by the elite of early-day San Francisco for their mansions. They were built of marble and stone and lavishly fitted and furnished. Today Nob Hill supports modern apartment houses and towering hotels.

Other famous hills of San Francisco are Telegraph Hill and Russian Hill, the former long used as a signal tower to inform the town of approaching ships, since it overlooks the Bay and the Golden Gate, as well as stretches of the Pacific beyond. The latter, just west of Telegraph Hill, was used in the early days as a burial ground for Russian sailors. These Hills are now covered with apartment houses, residences and studios. Thus, thousands of San Franciscans may look out of their windows on a marine scene of inspiring beauty.

Famous "Nob Hill" in San Francisco where early-day tycoons, called "Nabobs" by the townsfolk, built their mansions.
